Academic Excellence

- Clemson has had 53 players in the last 10 seasons who have played for the Tigers after they earned their undergraduate degrees. That includes six current Tigers (Terrance Ashe, Daniel Barnes, Chris Hairston, Richard Jackson, Byron Maxwell, Michael Wade) on the 2010 team. Scholarship players Brandon Clear, Xavier Dye, DeAndre McDaniel, Kasey Nobles, and Ben Ramsey all graduated on December 16.
- Clemson's football team had 33 players named to the academic honor roll for the 2010 spring semester, the third straight semester with at least 30 selections. The list of academic honor roll selections included First-Team All-ACC players DeAndre McDaniel and Michael Palmer.
- Each of the top-eight team GPAs have taken place in the last 10 years. That includes the 2010 spring semester when the team had a 2.56 GPA, second-best on record.
- Seven Tigers made the Academic All-ACC team in 2009, the most in Clemson history for one season. Clemson was second to Duke in the number of selections. The list of Tigers included All-American Thomas Austin and freshman All-American Dalton Freeman.
- In the last four years, 73 of the 79 players (92.4 percent) who have stayed at Clemson until their final year have graduated. That includes a graduation rate of 91 percent for scholarship football players (58-64) who have stayed until their senior season. All 20 seniors on the 2006 team received their degrees, and 16 of the 18 seniors on the 2009 team already have their degrees.
- Chad Carson and Kyle Young were first-team academic All-Americans in 2000 and 2001. Clemson was the only Division I school in the nation with two first-team picks each year. Young was a first-team academic All-American from 1999-01 and became just the second ACC player in history to be a three-time, first-team selection. He is one of just two offensive linemen in college football history to be a three-time, first-team academic All-American. He is currently an associate athletic director in the Clemson Athletic Department.
- Chad Carson joined Kyle Young in graduating from Clemson University Summa Cum Laude. In 2002, Carson reached the final stage of the Rhodes Scholarship selection process, as he was the only Division I football player in the nation who could make that prestigious claim.
- Head Coach Dabo Swinney is third in APR scores since he took over as head coach in 2008. His score for that time period is 982, just below Troy Calhoun of Air Force (985) and Pat Fitzgerald of Northwestern (985).

All-Star Selections

- Clemson has a history of decorated football players. The program boasts 63 different All-Americans in its history, including three members of the 2009 team. C.J. Spiller was a unanimous first-team All-American in 2009, just the third unanimous All-American in Clemson history. He was sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting. Spiller was joined by junior DeAndre McDaniel, a First-Team Football Writers Association All-America as a safety, and Thomas Austin, a third-team All-American as an offensive guard by Sporting News.
- In 2010, defensive end Da'Quan Bowers was named a first-team All-American, ACC Defensive Player-of-the-Year, and won both the Hendricks Award and Nagurski Award.
- Offensive linemen Chris McDuffie and Barry Richardson were both named to various teams in 2007, the first time in Tiger history that two offensive linemen on the same team were named All-American.
- In 2006, the late Gaines Adams was a unanimous All-American and was the #4 overall selection of the NFL draft. Adams, Da'Quan Bowers, Terry Kinard, and C.J. Spiller are the four first-team unanimous All-Americans in Clemson history.

- The Clemson program has had at least one All-American in 31 of the last 34 years.
- Clemson has had at least one First-Team All-ACC player each of the last 34 years, the longest active streak and the longest overall streak in ACC history. In 2010, Clemson had four first-team selections in Da'Quan Bowers, Chris Hairston, Jarvis Jenkins, and DeAndre McDaniel. Clemson and Maryland had the most first-team selections with four.
- Clemson had nine players named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team, more than any other school. The list of honorees shows the balance of the program over the years, as every area of a football team (by position) was represented. The nine players are Joe Bostic, Jerry Butler, Bennie Cunningham, Jeff Davis, Steve Fuller, Terry Kinard, Michael Dean Perry, William Perry, and Anthony Simmons. All nine players were All-Americans during at least one season at Clemson and played in the NFL.

Bowl History

- Clemson's victory in the 2009 Music City Bowl was its 32nd bowl game in history. Clemson's 16-win total in those games is 18th-most in FBS history.
- Clemson's first bowl game was a 6-3 victory over Boston College and Frank Leahy in the 1940 Cotton Bowl. Leahy is still second in college football history in winning percentage.
- Clemson won five straight bowl games between the 1986 and 1990 seasons, tied for the eighth-longest winning streak in college football history in consecutive seasons. Clemson defeated Stanford, Penn State, Oklahoma, West Virginia, and Illinois during the stretch.
- Clemson has defeated some of the top coaches in college football history in bowl competition. Among the list of celebrated head coaches who have lost to Clemson in bowl games since the ACC was founded are Joe Paterno (winningest coach in Division I history on a total-victories basis), Barry Switzer (#4-winningest Division I coach on a winning percentage basis), and Tom Osborne (#7-winningest Division I coach on a winning percentage basis). Hall of Fame Head Coach Woody Hayes suffered his final defeat against the Tigers in 1978 in the Gator Bowl. Overall, Clemson has defeated nine head coaches in bowl games who are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame.
- The 2009 Music City Bowl was Clemson's 21st bowl appearance since 1985, a tangible representation of the program's consistency. That mark is ninth in the nation in bowl appearances in the last 25 seasons. The Tigers have been to a bowl game 11 of the last 12 years and have been bowl-eligible 12 straight seasons.

Championship Tradition

- The Tigers were named National Champions by every service in 1981, as they were the only school in the nation with a perfect record (12-0). The year included three wins over top-10 teams (Georgia, Nebraska, North Carolina), the only team in college football to beat three top-10 teams in 1981. It was just the second national title for an ACC school.
- The 1981 team had five All-Americans on its roster, including first-team selections Jeff Davis, Terry Kinard, and Perry Tuttle. Thirty-one players on the 1981 squad were eventually drafted by the NFL and 22 players eventually played in the NFL. Twenty-three different players on the 1981 roster were First-Team All-ACC selections at one time during their careers.
- Since the ACC was formed in 1953, Clemson has more overall wins (394) and ACC wins (237) than any other school.
- Clemson won the ACC Atlantic Division title in 2009.
- Clemson has won 13 ACC titles (12 outright and one tied), still the all-time ACC record.

- Clemson won the Southern Conference title in 1940 and 1948 along with the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association in 1900 and 1902, giving the program 17 conference crowns.

Coaching Success

- Clemson has a legendary history when it comes to coaching. Three former Tiger mentors (John Heisman, Frank Howard, Jess Neely) are already in the College Football Hall of Fame. Howard was Clemson's coach when the ACC was founded and promptly took the Tigers to six ACC titles. No coach had more league titles than Howard during his 30-year tenure at Clemson. He concluded his career with 165 victories, and his 30-year tenure still is third-longest in NCAA history for a coach serving at one school.
- Danny Ford coached Clemson to the National Championship in 1981 and won six bowl games in his Clemson career, second on the all-time ACC coaching list. His 76-percent winning mark is also second-best in ACC history. He was the consensus national coach-of-the-year in 1981, and he remains the youngest coach (33) to win a national title.
- Tommy Bowden continued the tradition of outstanding Tiger coaches by leading the team to bowl games each of his first five years, the only coach in Clemson history to do that. He was ACC Coach-of-the-Year twice. In 2003, he became the second Tiger coach to defeat three top-25 teams in the same year and the second to record at least two top-10 wins in one year. He led Clemson to eight consecutive winning seasons, the longest streak by one coach in school history and coached the Tigers in eight bowl games, tied for third-most in ACC history.
- Current Head Coach Dabo Swinney was named the ACC Coach-of-the-Year by Sporting News and was one of 10 national finalists for the Liberty Mutual National Coach-of-the-Year Award. He led Clemson to nine wins in his first full season, second in the nation among first-year coaches in 2009.

Conference Competitiveness

- Clemson is a charter member of the Atlantic Coast Conference. Year in and year out, the ACC is considered among the best of the BCS conferences. The league is competitive with 12 teams, nine of whom went to bowls in 2009 and 2010. The conference had a record 10 bowl teams in 2008.
- Clemson has posted 10 straight winning seasons, a streak that dates to a 9-3 record in 2000. Clemson was one of just 14 schools nationally with a winning season in every year of the 2000s entering the 2010 season.
- Clemson, Florida State, Georgia Tech, Maryland, and Miami (FL) are schools within the conference that have won a national title.
- When Clemson running back C.J. Spiller, the 2009 ACC Player-of-the-Year, was chosen as the #9 overall selection of the NFL draft, it preserved a streak for the conference of having a player chosen among the top-10 draft picks in each of the past five years. Since the 2006 Draft, the ACC is the only conference with a top-10 selection in each of the past five years.
- Since 2006, the ACC has 16 top-10 NFL draft selections, trailing only the SEC (17) in that category. The Big 12 is next with 12 top-10 draftees since 2006.
- In the last four seasons, the ACC has 34 first-round selections in the NFL draft, second nationally among leagues by just two.
- No fewer than 17 players on the rosters of the 2010 Super Bowl teams played their collegiate football at ACC schools, while 10 of the coaches had some connection to an ACC institution. The AFC Champion Colts had six coaches with ACC ties led by Head Coach Jim Caldwell, who spent eight seasons as head coach at Wake Forest from 1993-00. Former Clemson offensive coordinator Clyde Christensen was also on that staff.

- For the second straight year, the ACC led all conferences by a wide margin in the number of former football stand-outs selected from its current schools to play in the Pro Bowl. Current ACC schools saw 23 of their former stand-outs selected to play in the 2010 Pro Bowl. The SEC was second with 15 selections, with the Big Ten third with 14. The Pac-10 had 13 selections, followed by the Big 12 and the Big East with 11 honorees each.
- For the fifth consecutive year, the ACC led all conferences in the nation (FBS) in graduating its football players. ACC schools have combined to graduate their players at a rate of 72.3 percent according to the NCAA's 2009 Graduation Success Rate (GSR) survey.

Exposure

- Clemson is one of the most-televised teams in the nation every year. In 2010, 10 of Clemson's 12 games were on some type of live television. Seven games were shown on ABC or on the ESPN family of networks.
- Clemson's 2009 senior class had 45 of their 53 games on live television, including 37 games on one of the ESPN family of networks.
- Clemson has averaged nine televised games during the last 26 years.
- Every season, the Clemson vs. Florida State game is one of the nation's most highly-rated college football games. In 2007, the game was played on Labor Day night on ESPN and had a 5.02 rating, the highest-rated game on the opening weekend of college football.
- Clemson's 2007 Chick-fil-A Bowl game against #21 Auburn also had a 5.02 rating on ESPN, the highest rated of the 19 bowl games shown by ESPN during the postseason and is the fifth-highest-rated bowl game for ESPN in its history.
- The exposure has led to great home attendance figures in Memorial Stadium. Clemson set a school record for season tickets in 2008 and led the ACC in average home attendance each of the last two years. Clemson has finished in the top 20 in the nation in home attendance every year since 1981.

First-Round Draft Picks

- C.J. Spiller was the #9 overall selection of the 2010 NFL draft and the first ACC player chosen. He was the 23rd first-round draft pick in Clemson history. He was the fourth first-round pick for the Clemson program in the last 10 years. All four players earned their academic degrees from Clemson.
- Gaines Adams was the #4 overall pick of the 2007 NFL draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Adams tied for the highest draft pick by a Tiger in history and the highest since 1939, when Banks McFadden was the #4 overall pick of the NFL draft by the Brooklyn Dodgers. Adams' selection tied for the third-highest pick in any sport in Tiger history.
- Clemson has had a top-32 selection in the NFL draft each of the last four years. Spiller was the #9 choice in 2010 and Phillip Merling was the #32 overall pick in 2008 by the Miami Dolphins. Gaines Adams was the #4 overall pick of the NFL draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2007 and Tye Hill was the #15 overall pick of the Saint Louis Rams in 2006. Clemson was one of just three schools nationally to have a top-15 pick in both 2006 and 2007.
- Clemson had an ACC-record 10 players drafted in 1983.
- Clemson has had 203 players drafted over the years, including five players from the 2009 team. Clemson was also among the top-15 teams in the nation in drafted players in April of 2007 when it had six selected.

Hall of Fame

- Former Clemson consensus All-American and 1981 National Championship team captain Jeff Davis was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2007. Davis is regarded as one of the great leaders of any team in Tiger athletics history. He had 175 tackles on the 1981 team, leading the Tigers to a perfect 12-0 record.
- Jeff Davis was the second member of Clemson's National Championship team to be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. Terry Kinard was inducted in 2001 in New York City. Both Davis and Kinard are also members of the Clemson Ring of Honor.
- Clemson had a special night in New York City on December 11, 2001. That evening, Terry Kinard was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and Kyle Young was a recipient of a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award. Clemson was the only school in the nation with one of each in 2001.
- Terry Kinard was the first Tiger football player to win a national individual award. He was named 1982 national defensive player-of-the-year by CBS. That year (his senior season), he was a unanimous first-team All-American, the first unanimous All-American in Clemson football history. He was named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002, and he was also listed among the top-50 athletes in the history of the ACC, regardless of sport.
- Three former Clemson coaches are in the College Football Hall of Fame. The list includes John Heisman (1900-03), Jess Neely (1931-39), and Frank Howard (1940-69).
- Banks McFadden, Clemson's greatest all-around athlete and an AP First-Team All-American in 1939, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959.

NFL Influence

- Twenty-two former Tigers have combined to win 30 Super Bowl Championship rings. Linebacker Anthony Waters was a member of the 2010 New Orleans Saints, who won the Super Bowl championship. It was the second straight year a former Tiger played on a Super Bowl Champion. Defensive tackle Nick Eason was a member of the 2009 Pittsburgh Steelers' Super Bowl Championship team. The leader is Jeff Bostic, who started on three Super Bowl Championship teams with the Washington Redskins.
- Clemson has had an alum on a Super Bowl Championship team seven of the last 12 years. Clemson was one of six schools to have a representative on each of the four teams involved in the conference championship games at the end of the 2005 season.
- Trevor Pryce, an All-ACC player at Clemson during the 1996 season, has won two Super Bowl Championship rings and been a four-time Pro Bowl selection. He was one of eight former Clemson defensive linemen on NFL rosters in 2006 and finished the season with 13.5 sacks, among the top-five totals in the NFL.
- Brian Dawkins is one of the stars of the NFL among defensive players. A 1996 Clemson graduate, Dawkins was an All-American on Clemson's 1995 team when he finished the season 10th in the nation in interceptions. He became the first player in NFL history in 2002 to register a sack, interception, recovered fumble, and receiving touchdown in the same game. He has been named to the Pro Bowl eight times in the last 11 seasons, including the 2010 Pro Bowl. The current Denver Bronco safety has been named to the Pro Bowl more than any other former Tiger.
- Levon Kirkland, now an administrator in the admissions office at Clemson, was named to the NFL All-Decade team (1990s) for his play with the Steelers.
- * Twenty-two former Clemson players were on NFL rosters during the 2010 season.

Poll Presence

- The 2009 season marked the 24th year that Clemson was ranked in the final top 25 of the AP poll. It was the third time in the last five years that Clemson was ranked in the final top 25. The Tigers' highest ranking is #1, a mark achieved on November 30, 1981 and in the final poll that season (January 4, 1982).
- Clemson once had a streak of 46 consecutive weeks ranked in the AP poll during the 1980s.
- Clemson finished in the top 20 of all the final polls from 1986-91, a six-year streak. The Tigers had exactly two losses in each of those six seasons.
- Clemson was ranked in the final top 20 of the AP poll six times in the 1980s. The Tigers were fifth in the nation in winning percentage during that decade.
- Beating ranked opponents has been a hallmark of Clemson's success. The Tigers have beaten an AP-ranked opponent 21 of last 25 years, including 12 top-25 victories in the last eight years. Clemson defeated a top 25 N.C. State team in 2010.
- Clemson has five top-10 wins in the last seven years, including a victory over #3 Florida State in 2003, the highest-ranked team the Tigers have beaten in history. In 2009, Clemson won at #8 Miami (FL), 40-37 in overtime in one of the most exciting games in Clemson history.

Prominent Former Tigers

- Dwight Clark had his #87 retired by the San Francisco 49ers after he finished his career in 1987. He was a starter on the 1981 and 1984 (seasons) Super Bowl Championship 49ers teams. He is most famous for his game winning catch on a pass from Joe Montana against Dallas in the 1982 NFC Championship game. He was the NFL MVP in 1982, the only former Tiger to win NFL MVP honors.
- Charlie Waters was a three-time Pro Bowl selection with the Cowboys. A member of the Cowboys "Ring of Honor," he played on two Super Bowl Championship teams before going on to a college coaching career at Oregon.
- Charlie Waters and Jeff Bostic were both named to ESPN's 40-Man Roster of Greatest Super Bowl players, released prior to Super Bowl XL.
- The Perry brothers (William, Michael Dean) were starters on Clemson's 1984 defense. Both were named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002. William played on Clemson's 1981 National Championship team as a freshman, then on the Super Bowl Champion Bears of 1985. Michael Dean played in six Pro Bowls with Cleveland and Denver, second-most among former Tigers. Both were named ACC Player-of-the-Year in their careers, William in 1984 and Michael Dean in 1987. They are the only brother combination in ACC history that can make that claim.

Clemson has a rich bowl tradition. The Tigers have 16 bowl wins, 18th-most in NCAA history. Their first bowl game was in the 1940 Cotton Bowl when the Tigers defeated Frank Leahy (Boston College) 6-3.

With its 2010 Meineke Car Care Bowl appearance, the Tigers have played in a bowl game 22 of the last 26 years. That is among the top-10 bowl appearances since 1985.

Clemson has beaten some of the top programs in college football history in bowl games. The list of schools Clemson has beaten in a bowl game includes prominent programs Miami (FL), Nebraska, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Penn State, Stanford, Tennessee, and West Virginia.

Clemson won its first three bowl games, wins over Boston College, Missouri, and Miami (FL). The three coaches Clemson beat in those games were Frank Leahy, Don Faurot, and Andy Gustafson, and all three are in the College Football Hall of Fame.

Clemson has a football program that has been steady over the years in bowl games, no matter who has been head coach. No less than seven different head coaches (Jess Neely, Frank Howard, Danny Ford, Ken Hatfield, Tommy West, Tommy Bowden, Dabo Swinney) have all won bowl games for the Tigers.

Overall, nine of Clemson's 16 bowl wins have come against coaches who are in the College Football Hall of Fame, including 2007 inductee Joe Paterno of Penn State. Clemson has four bowl wins over coaches who are in the 200-victory club. Woody Hayes of Ohio State, Tom Osborne of Nebraska, Paterno and Nehlen are all coaches with at least 200 wins who lost bowl games to Clemson.

Clemson has bowl wins over some of the greatest coaches in college football history:

- Frank Leahy, the second-winningest coach in history on a winning-percentage basis, when Clemson defeated Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.
- Joe Paterno of Penn State, the winningest coach in Division I college football history on a total-wins basis, when Clemson defeated Penn State 35-10 in the 1988 Citrus Bowl. It is still the largest margin of defeat in a bowl game for Paterno, who is the winningest coach in college history in terms of victories in bowl games.

- Woody Hayes of Ohio State, the ninth-winningest coach in college football history (Division I) on a total-victories basis, when Clemson defeated the Buckeyes 17-15 in the 1978 Gator Bowl, Hayes' last game as coach.
- Barry Switzer of Oklahoma, the fourth-winningest coach in Division I college football history on a winning-percentage basis, when Clemson defeated Oklahoma in 1989 Citrus Bowl, Switzer's final game as a college coach.
- Tom Osborne of Nebraska, the seventh-winningest coach in college football (Division I) history on a total-wins basis, when Clemson beat the Cornhuskers in the 1981 Orange Bowl, which gave Clemson its only national title.
- Don Nehlen of West Virginia, the 15th-winningest coach in Division I history when Clemson downed the Mountaineers 27-7 in the 1989 Gator Bowl.
- Phillip Fulmer of Tennessee, who had over 150 career wins, when the Tigers defeated a #6 Tennessee team 27-14 in the 2004 Peach Bowl.

Clemson & South Florida Have Similar Defensive Stats

Clemson and South Florida both have outstanding defenses and that is reflected in the national statistics entering the bowl season. A look to the chart below shows that the teams are separated by less than two points per game in terms of scoring defense and less than five yards per game in terms of total defense, pass defense, and rush defense.

In fact, Clemson is allowing 131.7 rushing yards per game and South Florida is allowing 131.9 rushing yards per game. Clemson's defense has given up 22 touchdowns, including just six rushing, and South Florida's defense has given up 23 touchdowns, including only seven rushing. Clemson is giving up just 17.0 first downs per game and South Florida is yielding 17.3 first downs per game.

Clemson vs. Skip Holtz

Clemson has not faced an opposing team led by Skip Holtz, but Holtz has gone against the Tigers as an assistant coach at South Carolina and as a graduate assistant at Florida State.

The 1986 Notre Dame graduate was an assistant under his father, Lou Holtz, at South Carolina from 1999-04. Clemson won five of the six meetings against the Gamecocks during that time. South Carolina's only win in that period was a 20-15 victory in Columbia in 2001.

Holtz was on Bobby Bowden's staff at Florida State as a graduate assistant in 1988. Florida State won at Clemson that year by a score of 24-21.

Lou Holtz coached against the Tigers for two schools, N.C. State and South Carolina. Lou Holtz was 5-5 against Clemson in his career, 1-5 as South Carolina's head coach and 4-0 as N.C. State's head coach in the 1970s.

Clemson vs. Big East Conference

The Meineke Car Care Bowl will be Clemson's fourth game against a team currently in the Big East Conference. All three of the previous meetings have been in the Gator Bowl. Clemson has a 1-2 record against Big East Conference foes.

The first meeting against a team currently in the Big East Conference took place against Pittsburgh in the 1977 Gator Bowl. The Panthers won that game by a score of 34-3. Clemson earned its first win over a Big East Conference team in the 1989 Gator Bowl when Clemson defeated West Virginia by a score of 27-7. The Tigers then played Syracuse in the 1995 Gator Bowl, as the Orange came away with a 41-0 victory.

Clemson has played four other games against teams that are in the Big East Conference for other sports, but not football. Clemson split a pair of games with Notre Dame, losing 21-17 at Clemson in 1977 and winning in South Bend by a score of 16-10 in 1979. Notre Dame is in the Big East Conference for all sports except for football. The Tigers have split two games with Villanova, who is at the FCS level in football. Villanova defeated Clemson on the gridiron in 1952 by a score of 14-7, and Clemson won in 1978 by a score of 31-0. Both of those games were at Clemson.

Clemson's Second Game at Bank of America Stadium

The Meineke Car Care Bowl game against South Florida will be the second contest for the Tigers at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte, NC. Clemson defeated Temple by a score of 63-9 in a regular-season game on a Thursday evening at Bank of America Stadium on October 12, 2006. Al Golden, who recently accepted the head coaching position at Miami (FL), was the head coach at Temple for that game.

No active Tiger played in that game, but some red-shirt seniors were on the sidelines that evening.

Clemson has a strong tie to the Carolina Panthers, who play their home games in Bank of America Stadium. In 1995, the Panthers' first year in the NFL, they played their home games at Memorial Stadium while Bank of America Stadium was being built.

Records & Milestones in Range

- Da'Quan Bowers needs one sack to become Clemson's single-season recordholder. He has 15.5 sacks and the record is 16 by Keith Adams (1999). Bowers needs just one sack to become the ninth player in Clemson history with 20 career sacks.
- Da'Quan Bowers needs three tackles for loss to set Clemson's single-season record by a defensive lineman. He has 25 and the record is 27 by William Perry (1984) and Rob Bodine (1991).
- If Marcus Gilchrist, Byron Maxwell, DeAndre McDaniel, and Michael Wade all play in the Meineke Car Care Bowl, they will tie the Clemson career record for games played. They have all played 52 games over the last four years.
- Jamie Harper needs one receiving touchdown to tie C.J. Spiller's record for receiving touchdowns in a season by a running back. Harper has three receiving touchdowns and the record is four by Spiller (2009).
- DeAndre Hopkins needs one touchdown reception to set the Clemson single-season freshman record. He has four touchdown catches and is tied with many other freshman wideouts in Clemson history.
- DeAndre McDaniel needs two interceptions to tie the Clemson career record. McDaniel has 15 interceptions and the record is 17 by Terry Kinard (1978-82).
- Kyle Parker needs 43 passing yards to move into the top five in Clemson history on a career basis. Parker has 4,605 passing yards and needs 43 to move ahead of Rodney Williams, who had 4,647 passing yards from 1985-88. Parker has 390 career completions and needs 10 completions to become the fifth player in Clemson history with 400 career completions. Parker is already fifth in touchdown passes with 32 in his 26 games at Clemson.

A Clemson Victory Would...

- Give Clemson a bowl victory in consecutive seasons for the first time since the 1986-90 era, when Clemson won a bowl game in five straight seasons.
- Give Clemson a bowl victory in an even numbered season for the first time in 20 years (1990).
- Give Clemson an 11th consecutive winning season.
- Give Clemson a winning record in bowl games. Clemson is 16-16 in bowl games.
- Make Dabo Swinney the first Clemson head coach to win two of his first three bowl games since Danny Ford won two of his first three. The only other Clemson coach to do it is Frank Howard.

2009 Music City Bowl Recap

C.J. Spiller totaled 172 all-purpose yards and scored a touchdown in his final college game, leading Clemson to a 21-13 win over Kentucky in the Music City Bowl in Nashville, TN. The victory closed a 9-5 season for the Tigers, who finished #24 in the AP poll.

Spiller was named MVP of the game, as he had 67 rushing yards, 58 receiving yards, and 47 kickoff return yards. His eight-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter put the Tigers up by eight points, as it was his school-record 51st career touchdown.

Kentucky drove 61 yards on its first possession and Morgan Newton threw a 17-yard scoring pass to Chris Matthews to put the Wildcats ahead 7-0. Clemson countered later in the quarter when Kyle Parker threw his 20th touchdown pass of the year on a 32-yard pass to Jacoby Ford.

Jamie Harper, who was Clemson's leading rusher in the game with 79 yards on eight carries, put Clemson up 14-10 on a one-yard run with five minutes left in the first half.

Kentucky made it 14-13 on a field goal in the third quarter. In the fourth quarter, Kavell Conner stripped Gene McCaskill and Jarvis Jenkins recovered at the Kentucky 19 before Spiller scored with 10:14 left to put Clemson up 21-13.

After the Spiller touchdown, Kentucky drove 60 yards into Clemson territory, but Rick Sapp stopped Newton just short of a first down at the Clemson 25. The Tigers took over and ran out the final 5:27 of the game thanks to the running of Spiller and Harper, who combined for 53 rushing yards on the drive.

Clemson's strong defensive effort allowed just one touchdown. Conner, playing in his last college game, had a career-high 15 tackles, and DeAndre McDaniel had the same total, also a career-high. Freshman Corico Hawkins, starting in place of an injured Brandon Maye, had seven tackles in his first career start. Marcus Gilchrist added eight tackles and Jeremy Campbell had seven stops in his final game as a Tiger.

Clemson in NCAA Statistics

Clemson is in the top 25 in the nation in a number of statistical categories. Below is a rundown of Clemson's standing in various categories.

- #2 in rushing touchdowns allowed (6)
- #6 in touchdowns allowed (23)
- #9 in scoring defense (17.8)
- #12 in tackles for loss (7.3)
- #15 in first downs allowed (17.0)
- #21 in net punting (38.5)
- #23 in total defense (323.8)
- #24 in punt return defense (5.8)
- #25 in pass efficiency defense (114.0)

Clemson Has 10 Straight Winning Seasons

A win in the Meineke Car Care Bowl game would give Clemson an 11th consecutive winning season. Clemson's last non-winning season was in 1999, when the Tigers were 6-6 in Tommy Bowden's first year as head coach, but they did play in the Peach Bowl.

Entering 2010, 14 different schools had a winning season of at least 10 years in a row. In addition to Clemson, those schools were Boise State, Boston College, Florida, Florida State, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Louisiana State, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Southern Mississippi, Texas, Texas Tech, and Virginia Tech.

Texas dropped off the list with a 5-7 regular season this year. Clemson, Georgia Tech, and Georgia all must win bowl games to keep their streaks alive.

Tough Schedule for the Tigers

Clemson has played a tough schedule this year. The Tigers have played nine teams that will play in bowl games this year. Only Notre Dame has played more (10). The nine bowl opponents in the regular season is the most in school history. Eight teams on Clemson's schedule have totaled seven regular-season wins, also a high in Clemson history.

Clemson has played two non-conference games against top-25 teams, #15 Auburn, who will play in the National Championship game, and #17 South Carolina, who played for the SEC title against Auburn.

This is the first time since 2005 and just the second time since 1989 that Clemson has faced two top-25 non-conference teams in the same regular season. In 2005, Clemson played a top-25 Texas A&M team and a top-25 Gamecock squad, and Clemson won both games.

Clemson is the only ACC team to face two non-conference opponents ranked in the top 25 in the regular season in 2010.

Clemson Tied for Sixth Nationally in TDs Allowed

Clemson is tied for sixth in the nation in terms of touchdowns allowed (23). That includes six rushing touchdowns, 16 passing touchdowns, and one on an interception return for a score. West Virginia leads the nation in touchdowns allowed (15), followed by TCU and Alabama, who have given up 18 apiece. Ohio State is fourth (20) and Boise State is fifth (22). Clemson and Missouri have given up 23, while Boston College, Iowa, and Nebraska have allowed 24.

Clemson has allowed just six rushing touchdowns this year, the fewest given up by the Tigers since 1992, when that team gave up just six in 11 games. West Virginia leads the nation in rushing touchdowns allowed (3). Clemson is tied for second with Alabama, while Boston College, South Florida, TCU, and Wisconsin have allowed just seven apiece.

Clemson Defense Above Average Against Most Foes

A look to Clemson opponent averages over the course the season shows that the Tigers have held 10 of their 11 FBS opponents under their scoring average and rushing average, nine opponents under their total offense average, and eight opponents under their passing yardage average this year.

In terms of scoring average, eight of the 11 FBS opponents had at least their third-lowest scoring performance of the season against Clemson. N.C. State has averaged 32.6 points per game this year, but scored just 13 against Clemson. That is the lowest total by the Wolfpack offense by 14 points this year, as Tom O'Brien's team has scored at least 27 points in every other game this year.

Maryland scored just seven points against the Tigers and has averaged 31 points per game. That was the fewest points the Terrapins have scored all year. Florida State has averaged 32 points per game and had just 16 against Clemson. That is also the fewest points scored by the Seminoles this year. Auburn scored 27 points in a 27-24 overtime win against Clemson in September. That is the third-lowest point total of the season for the SEC Tigers. They scored just 24 points in regulation.

Each of the last six opponents have failed to reach their total offense average against Clemson, while each of the last four have failed to reach their rushing yardage average. Each of the last four opponents have failed to reach 100 rushing yards against the Tigers as well.

As you can see by the chart below, only Miami (FL) has reached its season average in terms of scoring against Clemson. Miami has averaged 27 points per game this year and scored 30 against Clemson. In terms of rushing, only Boston College has reached its season average against Clemson. The Eagles have averaged 133 yards per game on the ground this year and had 169 against Clemson.

Clemson's defense held South Carolina to 95 rushing yards, 60 yards under its average for the season. A big reason was Clemson's ability to shut down freshman All-American Marcus Lattimore, who had just 48 yards on 23 carries (2.1 yards per carry). That is the fewest yards-per-carry figure for Lattimore in 2010.

Tiger Defense vs. Opponent Averages in 2010
Opponent	Points	Total Offense	Passing Offense	Rushing Offense
North Texas	24-10	375-462	173-269	202-193
Auburn	43-27	498-424	210-203	287-221

Note: Season averages listed first, figures against Clemson listed second; only includes FBS schools.

Clemson Strong on Pass Defense

Clemson has had another top-25 season in terms of pass defense. The Tigers are 25th in the nation in pass efficiency defense (114.0). DeAndre McDaniel has four interceptions to lead the team and also leads the defense in tackles (73).

The Tigers held Georgia Tech to 6-19 passing for 83 yards. The Yellow Jackets had an efficiency rating of 75.1 in the game. Clemson held #23 N.C. State to 83 passing yards under its per-game average.

This is no surprise considering Clemson has been among the top 25 in the nation in pass efficiency defense each of the last seven years.

Clemson Pass Efficiency Defense (2004-10)

Year	Rating	Rank
2004	103.4	11
2005	110.9	18
2006	106.4	17

2009	110.9	21
2010	114.0	25

Defense Has Been Strong in the Last Seven Weeks

Clemson's defense has been strong all year, but especially effective in the last seven games. In the last seven games, Clemson has allowed just 14.9 points per game, 4.7 yards per play, and 3.2 yards per carry.

The Tigers have improved their defense in the red zone and on third down. Clemson has allowed opponents to convert on third down just 35.8 percent of the time and has allowed just six touchdowns in 17 red-zone possessions in the last seven games. Opponents scored touchdowns in 12 of 17 opportunities during the first five games of 2010.

Clemson allowed 14 touchdowns in the first five games, but it has allowed just eight in the last seven games. That includes two offensive touchdowns by South Carolina. One was on a five-yard drive after a Tiger fumble.

Tigers Earn One-Point Win

Clemson defeated #23 N.C. State by a score of 14-13 at Memorial Stadium on November 6. That was Clemson's first victory by one point since a 25-24 win over Texas A&M in the 2005 season-opener. It was Clemson's sixth win by one point since 1987.

Best All-Around Special Teams Game?

Clemson suffered a 30-21 loss to #16 Miami (FL) on October 2, but one positive area was special teams. Clemson was facing a Hurricane team that entered the game in the top 10 in the nation in both punt returns and kickoff returns. The Hurricanes had returned a punt and a kickoff for a touchdown earlier in the year against Ohio State.

However, Clemson's coverage units held the Hurricanes to just one yard on four punt returns and a 19-yard average on four kickoff returns. In terms of net punting, Clemson averaged 46.0 per punt and had two punts inside the 20. Dawson Zimmerman also had three punts of at least 50 yards.

Clemson averaged 14.6 yards per punt return and 23.8 yards per kickoff return, including a 50-yard return by Marcus Gilchrist, in the game. Additionally, Clemson had a blocked extra point by senior defensive tackle Jarvis Jenkins, the first blocked kick Matt Bosher's career.

Three Games Without a Turnover

Clemson went three consecutive games without a turnover, a first in school history. The Tigers did not have a turnover at North Carolina or in the home wins over Maryland and Georgia Tech. The streak reached 238 consecutive offensive plays before Kyle Parker threw an interception at Boston College.

Clemson has committed 21 turnovers in 2010, but 15 of them took place in four games, six against #16 Miami (FL), three at Boston College, three against #23 N.C. State, and three against #17 South Carolina. Clemson was 1-3 in those four games.

The Tigers have committed 62 turnovers in Dabo Swinney's 33 games as head coach (1.9 per game).

Clemson has outscored the opposition 51-46 in terms of points off turnovers this year. Twenty-six of the 46 opponent points off turnovers took place in two games, losses to #16 Miami (FL) and #17 South Carolina. In six of the 12 games, opponents did not record a single point off a Tiger turnover.

Clemson has a 6-3 record under Swinney when it does not commit a turnover. That is not a very good record in that situation when you see that Clemson was 48-10 (.828) in turnoverless games from 1980 until he became head coach in 2008. Clemson was 3-1 in games it did not have a turnover in 2009, with the only loss coming to #14 TCU by a score of 14-10.

The school record for games without a turnover in a season is five (1988,94). Clemson was 4-1 in 1988 in games without a turnover and 3-2 in 1994. Therefore, one more game without a turnover this year will tie that record.

Tiger Staff Has Experience

Clemson has an experienced staff. The 10 coaches have a combined 169 years of coaching experience at the Division I level as full-time coaches. Those coaches have been to a combined 123 bowl games and have won a combined 17 conference titles.

Four of the coaches have been on a staff that has won a national title. Kevin Steele was on a national championship staff at Nebraska, Dan Brooks at Tennessee, Danny Pearman at Alabama, and Brad Scott at Florida State.

That list of national championship coaches does not include Dabo Swinney, but he played on a national championship team at Alabama. Woody McCorvey was on the national championship staff at Alabama in 1992 and is now an associate athletic director with the Clemson football program.

Seniors Establishing Marks

Clemson's 2010 seniors have accomplished quite a bit with 31 wins in the books. This group (20 seniors) enjoyed playing in Death Valley and had a 21-7 record (.750) in the last four years at home. That percentage is ahead of Clemson's all-time winning percentage of 71 percent at home.

The group has also recorded 12 wins over teams who finished the season with a winning record and 15 wins over teams that have played in bowl games, including three this year (Georgia Tech, Maryland, N.C. State). The Tigers have averaged 28 points per game on offense and have given up 19 points per game on defense for an average victory margin of nine points per game over the four years.

In ACC play, the team has had a break-even-or-better record each year, including winning the ACC Atlantic Division title in 2009 when Clemson had a 6-2 conference mark, tied for the best for the Clemson program since 1991.

In 2007 and 2009, this class experienced a final top-25 ranking and won nine games, tied for the most victories for the program since 1990.

A victory in the bowl game would make this senior class the first to win bowl games in each of their last two years since the seniors of 1990.

Tigers Have a Young Team

Clemson will take a young team to the Meineke Car Care Bowl. The Tigers will start 19 underclassmen in the 24 starting positions. The Tigers will start nine underclassmen on offense and eight on defense, plus the punter and the placekicker are underclassmen.

In 2011, Clemson is expected to return four starters on the offensive line, two starters in the offensive backfield, and three starters at the receiver positions (including tight end). In terms of the defense, the Tigers will lose starting defensive tackle Jarvis Jenkins, safety DeAndre McDaniel, and cornerback Marcus Gilchrist. Defensive end Da'Quan Bowers is a junior who was a first-team All-American this year. He will decide if he will enter the NFL draft after the season.

In terms of statistics, Clemson will return each of the top-three rushers and players who have accounted for 95 percent of the rushing yards. Each of the top eight receivers will return next year as well as players who have accounted for 95 percent of the receiving yards. Quarterback Kyle Parker will move on to a professional baseball career even though he has two years of eligibility remaining, and offensive tackle Chris Hairston is a graduate who will move on to pursue a professional career.

First-Year Freshmen

Clemson played three first-year freshmen in the season-opening game against North Texas. Wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins, defensive back Martin Jenkins, and linebacker Justin Parker all saw action. A fourth, Darius Robinson, played against Presbyterian College. Below is a list of first-year freshmen who have played each year since 1999.

Eleven Original Walk-ons on Scholarship

Clemson has 11 original walk-ons on scholarship for the 2010 season. The Tigers have had some walk-ons who have gone on to be very successful as scholarship players. Defensive tackle Rob Bodine, who went on to earn first-team All-America honors on Clemson's 1991 ACC Championship team, was inducted into the Clemson Hall of Fame. He had a national-best 27 tackles for loss in 1991.

10 Tigers Stuck in Elevator Before Georgia Tech Game

It did not look like October 23 was going to be a good day for the Tigers. At 9:00 AM on the day of Clemson's 3:30 PM game with Georgia Tech on October 23, a fire alarm went off due to a kitchen fire at the team hotel in Anderson, SC.

Then around 11:30 AM, 10 Tigers, mostly linemen, became stuck in a hotel elevator. They were on the way to pregame meal. It took 45 minutes to get the players out of the elevator. Local firefighters were called in and they had to break the door open to get the players out.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney had the situation under control. "I told the guys to calm down. If they can get 33 miners out of that shaft in Chile, we can get 10 Clemson football players out of an elevator in Anderson, SC."

It is the second time on record that Clemson has had someone stuck in an elevator the day of a game. Prior to the 1982 Orange Bowl victory over Nebraska, Clemson junior running back Cliff Austin was stuck in the elevator at the team hotel for over an hour. He later scored a touchdown in the night-game victory that gave Clemson its only national title.

Six Graduates on Team During Regular Season

Clemson had six graduates on the 2010 team during the regular season. The list of Tigers who had a cap and gown insignia on their helmets during the regular season to show they were graduates are Terrance Ashe, Daniel Barnes, Chris Hairston, Richard Jackson, Byron Maxwell, and Michael Wade.

Eight more Tigers earned their degrees on December 16. They include Brandon Clear, Xavier Dye, Brock Henderson, Shawn Leonard-Horwith, DeAndre McDaniel, Kasey Nobles, Ben Ramsey, and John Wright.

Clemson Players-of-the-Game

Each week, Clemson coaches select a player-of-the-game for the offense, defense, and special teams. Below is the game-by-game rundown in 2010.

Clemson in the Top 20 Nationally in Home Attendance

Clemson averaged 75,786 fans per home game this year, a figure that is 18th-best in the nation according to the NCAA website through the end of the regular season. It will mark the 30th consecutive year Clemson has finished in the top 20 in the nation in average attendance. The streak started in 1981, the year Clemson won the national title, when Clemson finished 20th with an average of 61,859 fans per game.

The Tigers finished 17th in the nation in average attendance in 2009 with 75,793 fans per game, so it was a decrease of just seven fans per game over the 2009 season. The 2010 season marks the 12th consecutive year Clemson averaged at least 75,000 fans per home game. Clemson also led the ACC in average attendance this year, while Florida State was second with just over 71,000 fans per home game.

Three Former Tigers Score NFL TDs on One Day

Former Tigers Jacoby Ford, Michael Palmer, and Chansi Stuckey all scored touchdowns in NFL games on November 7. It was the first career scores for Ford and Palmer, teammates on Clemson's 2009 ACC Atlantic Division Championship team.

Ford scored on a 94-yard kickoff return for the Oakland Raiders against the Kansas City Chiefs. It was the opening kickoff of the second half and gave the Raiders the lead.

Ford finished with four kickoff returns for 158 yards and also had six receptions for 148 yards. His 29-yard reception with only seconds left set up a 41-yard field goal by Sebastian Janikowski that sent the game into overtime. His 47-yard reception in overtime set up Janikowski's game-winning 33-yard field goal in overtime.

Ford led the Raiders in receiving with 148 yards and finished the day with 306 all-purpose yards. He became just the second player in NFL history to have at least 140 receiving yards and 150 yards on kickoff returns in the same game.

Ford is the second former Tiger to return a kickoff for a touchdown this year. In September, C.J. Spiller returned a kickoff 95 yards for a score at New England. It marked just the second time in the last 40 years that two rookies from the same school returned a kickoff for a touchdown in the same year.

Palmer scored on a five-yard reception from Matt Ryan for the Atlanta Falcons in their 27-21 victory over the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Palmer finished the game with two receptions for 11 yards. There was a bit of irony in Palmer hauling in the pass from Ryan. Ryan was the quarterback for Boston College, an ACC rival, when Palmer was a freshman and sophomore.

Stuckey scored on an 11-yard run for the Cleveland Browns against the New England Patriots in the Browns' 34-14 upset victory. It was just the second loss of the season for the Patriots.

Charlie Whitehurst started at quarterback for the Seattle Seahawks against the New York Giants. It was Whitehurst's first career start, as he completed 12-23 passes for 113 yards and a touchdown. Whitehurst became the first former Tiger to start at quarterback in an NFL game since November 3, 1986, when Steve Fuller of the Chicago Bears started against the Los Angeles Rams.

With Whitehurst's touchdown pass, it meant that a former Tiger accounted for a touchdown rushing (Stuckey), receiving (Palmer), passing (Whitehurst), and on a kickoff return (Ford) on the same day.

Four Tigers Named First-Team All-ACC

Four Tigers, including three starters from the ACC's leading scoring defense, were named First-Team All-ACC. The team was released by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association in late November.

Junior defensive end Da'Quan Bowers, senior safety DeAndre McDaniel, and senior defensive tackle Jarvis Jenkins were all named First-Team All-ACC from the Clemson unit that is tied for ninth in the nation in scoring defense. Clemson had more first-team selections to the All-ACC defensive team than any other school.

It is the first time that the Tigers have had three first-team selections on defense since the 2000 season and the first time Clemson has had four total first-team selections since 2007.

Graduate offensive tackle Chris Hairston was the only Tiger on offense to earn First-Team All-ACC honors. Sophomore tight end Dwayne Allen was a Second-Team All-ACC selection.

Clemson and Maryland had the most first-team selections with four apiece, while Boston College, Miami (FL), and Virginia Tech all had three apiece.

Bowers is first in the nation in sacks (15.5) and second in tackles for loss (25).

McDaniel was named First-Team All-ACC for the second consecutive year. He had a team-high four interceptions. His 15 career interceptions are third-most among active FBS players and second-most in school history. He has a team-high 73 tackles in 2010 as well.

Jenkins has been a key to Clemson's defensive front this year. He has 51 tackles, nine tackles for loss, and 16 quarterback pressures.

Hairston is Clemson's top offensive lineman. A Second-Team All-ACC selection in 2009, he has provided holes for running backs Andre Ellington and Jamie Harper, who have combined for 1,412 rushing yards and 21 touchdowns this year.

Allen has 31 receptions for 356 yards, second-most on the team. His reception total is the most in school history by a sophomore tight end.

Bowers & Ellington Honored

Defensive end Da'Quan Bowers was named one of two national defensive players-of-the-week by the College Football Performance Awards website for games of October 16. Bowers had three sacks in Clemson's win over Maryland. J.J. Watts of Wisconsin was also honored by the website. Running back Andre Ellington was honored by the same website as the national kickoff returner-of-the-week.

Bowers added four tackles for loss among his six tackles in leading Clemson's defense in a 31-7 win over Maryland. All three of his sacks were in key third-down situations. The biggest took place in the second quarter. With Clemson leading 10-7, Maryland had the ball on the Clemson seven with a third-and-one. Bowers ran by two players assigned to block him and sacked Danny O'Brien to force Maryland into a field-goal attempt, which it missed, allowing Clemson to hold the lead.

Bowers' sack total against Maryland was a career high, as he became the first Tiger since 2001 to record three sacks in a game. Bryant McNeal had three against Duke that year.

Ellington had two kickoff returns for 122 yards, including an 87-yarder for a touchdown in the second quarter that turned the game in Clemson's favor. The Tigers trailed 7-3 when Ellington took it all the way back for a score, giving Clemson a 10-7 lead. Clemson would not trail the rest of the game. Ellington also had 41 yards and a touchdown on the ground.

Harper & Ellington Combine 1,412 Rushing Yards

While only one will be on display at the Meineke Car Care Bowl, Clemson has had a strong running combination this year with Andre Ellington and Jamie Harper. Known as "The New Storm," after Clemson's previous combination of C.J. Spiller and James Davis was known as "Thunder & Lightning," Ellington and Harper have combined for 1,412 yards on 295 carries and 16 rushing touchdowns this year.

Ellington has missed three complete games and played just three snaps in another due to a toe injury suffered at Boston College. He enters the bowl season third in the ACC in all-purpose yards per game and is sixth in rushing yards per game. He has 12 touchdowns, tied for second-most in the ACC. He will not play in the bowl game after having surgery on December 13.

Harper, who will start at running back, has six rushing touchdowns and three receiving touchdowns for nine total touchdowns, second-most on the team and tied for eighth-most in the ACC. That gives Ellington and Harper 21 total touchdowns between them this year.

Harper is first on the team in all-purpose yards (1,077), including 1,034 yards from scrimmage, also a team-high. Ellington has 1,033 all-purpose yards, including 238 yards on kickoff returns. He has a 34-yard average on seven kickoff returns this year, including an 87-yard kickoff return for a score against Maryland.

Swinney Third Nationally in APR

According to research compiled by the website NCAAFootball.FanHouse.com off data provided by the NCAA, Head Coach Dabo Swinney is third in the nation in terms of APR scores for the Clemson program since he took over as head coach in 2008. The website captured data for the entering classes from 2003-04 through 2008-09, but is specific to each coach.

In 2003, the NCAA created the APR to monitor academic progress of its member institutions. The APR is a formula that takes into account semester-by-semester academic progress in terms of eligibility and retention rates for each scholarship student-athlete. The study includes APR scores at previous schools for a head coach who changes jobs.

Swinney's program has had an APR score of 982 for his three years as head coach (2008 season was included in the study), trailing only the 985 by Troy Calhoun (Air Force) and Pat Fitzgerald (Northwestern). Greg Schiano (Rutgers) is fourth at 981 and Paul Johnson (Georgia Tech) is fifth at 980.

Scott in 12th Season at Clemson

Associate Head Coach and Offensive Guards & Centers Coach Brad Scott is in his 12th season as an assistant coach at Clemson. He is tied for ninth in school history in terms of longest tenured assistant coaches. The record is held by Bob Jones, who coached 30 years under Frank Howard from 1940-69. Banks McFadden coached for 25 years under Howard and Goat McMillan coached for 24 years. Bob Smith was with Howard for 20 years.

Scott came to Clemson in 1999 when Tommy Bowden was hired as head coach. He served as tight ends coach in 1999 and 2000, and also took on the role of offensive coordinator from 2001-03.

Scott is also a part of the first father-son coaching combination in Clemson history. His son, Jeff, is in his second full season as Clemson's wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator.

Allen on John Mackey Award Midseason Watch List

Tight end Dwayne Allen was named one of 22 Mid-season Watch List candidates for the 2010 John Mackey Award, the honor that goes to the top tight end in college football. Allen was one of three ACC players on the list, including George Bryan (N.C. State) and Zack Pinalto (North Carolina).

Allen, one of just three sophomores on the list, is tied for second on the team with 31 catches for 356 yards and a touchdown. He had five catches for 66 yards at #15 Auburn and a career-high-tying seven receptions for 55 yards at North Carolina. He also had seven catches for 57 yards at Boston College.

His receiving total is the most ever by a Clemson sophomore tight end. He was named Second-Team All-ACC at the conclusion of the regular season.

Benton Already Has Kicker Tackle Record

Placekicker Spencer Benton has six special teams tackles this year and 15 in his career. He is just a sophomore and has played only 26 games. He is already Clemson's career leader in tackles by a kicker. All 15 of his tackles have taken place on kickoffs.

Benton's nine tackles on kickoff returns last year were a single-season record (special teams tackles date to 1986) and more than twice the previous record of four set by Stephen Furr (2002) and Mark Buchholz (2007).

Benton has three touchbacks in 60 kickoffs this year, but 17 times the Tigers have held their opponent inside the 21 to start a drive. He is a big reason Clemson has a 4.6-yard advantage when it comes to starting a drive after a kickoff. Tiger opponents have started on average at their own 26 after a kickoff, while Clemson has started at its own 30 on average.

Bowers Wins Hendricks Award & Nagurski Award

Junior defensive end Da'Quan Bowers won the Ted Hendricks Award and Bronko Nagurski Award this year. The Hendricks Award goes to the top defensive end in the nation, while the Nagurski Award goes to the most outstanding defensive player in the nation.

Bowers is the first Tiger to win either award and the first Tiger to win more than one national award in the same year. The only other Tiger to win a national position award is Terry Kinard, who was named CBS National Defensive Player-of-the-Year in 1982.

"Da'Quan Bowers is an excellent choice for this year's winner," said Ted Hendricks, whom the award is named after. "I like the way he plays the run because he really handles his opponents. This is an individual who possesses sheer natural talent. In the past, some have questioned his pass-rush abilities, but he's the nation's sack leader this year. Any more questions? Da'Quan clearly impressed our selection committee members, and I think they have made another fine choice."

Bowers was also a finalist for the Bednarik Award and Lombardi Award, and he was a first-team All-American according to all major services. Bowers leads the nation in sacks (15.5) and is second in tackles for loss (25). His sack total is second-best in Clemson history and is the most by an ACC player since 1999, when Keith Adams had a Tiger-record 16 sacks.

Bowers' tackle-for-loss total is the most by a Clemson defensive lineman since 1991, when Rob Bodine had 27. Bowers had a streak of nine straight games involved in a sack during this season, the longest streak in Clemson history. Bowers was also named ACC Defensive Player-of-the-Year.

Bowers a Unanimous All-American

Defensive end Da'Quan Bowers was named a first-team All-American by Sporting News. The selection made Bowers a unanimous first-team All-American for 2010, just the fourth Tiger in history to be named a unanimous first-team All-American and the first junior to do it.

Earlier this season, he was named first-team by AP, AFCA, Football Writers Association, and Walter Camp Foundation. Those are the five major All-America teams recognized by the NCAA when it selects its consensus and unanimous All-America teams.

Bowers was also named a first-team All-American by CBSsports.com, College Football News, Phil Steele, Rivals.com, Scout.com, and SI.com.

Bowers joined Terry Kinard (1982), Gaines Adams (2006), and C.J. Spiller (2009) as the only unanimous first-team All-Americans in Clemson history.

Bowers was one of 10 unanimous first-team All-Americans this year. The others are Prince Amukamara (CB) of Nebraska, Justin Blackmon (WR) of Oklahoma State, Gabe Carimi (OL) of Wisconsin, Rodney Hudson (OL) of Florida State, LaMichael James (RB) of Oregon, Greg Jones (LB) of Michigan State, Ryan Kerrigan (DE) of Purdue, Luke Kuechly (LB) of Boston College, and Patrick Peterson (DB) of Louisiana State.

Bowers could be considered the most honored Clemson player in history for a single season. He became the first Tiger to win the Hendricks Award and Nagurski Award. The Nagurski Award is selected by the Football Writers Association and goes to the top defensive player in the nation. The Hendricks Award goes to the top defensive end in college football.

Bowers was also a finalist for the Bednarik Award and Lombardi Award. He was named ACC Defensive Player-of-the-Year as well.

Bowers leads the nation in sacks (15.5) and is second in tackles for loss (25). His sack total is second-best in Clemson history, including best among defensive linemen, and is the most by an ACC player since 1999, when Keith Adams had a Tiger-record 16 sacks. Bowers had a streak of nine consecutive games with a sack, a school record. He is second on the team in tackles (67). Clemson is tied for ninth in the nation in scoring defense and tied for second in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed (6).

Bowers' tackle-for-loss total is the most by a Tiger defensive lineman since 1991, when Rob Bodine had 27. Bowers had a streak of nine straight games with a sack in 2010, the longest streak in school history.

Bowers Moving Up ACC Sack List

Junior defensive end Da'Quan Bowers has 15.5 sacks in 2010, just a half a sack short of the Clemson single-season record. His total is also seventh-best in ACC history for one season. The ACC record is 19 by Peter Boulware (Florida State) in 1996. The national record is 24 by Terrell Suggs (Arizona State) in 2002 (NCAA has kept defensive stats as an official stat since 1999).

Bowers' 15.5 sacks are the most by any ACC player since 1999, when Clemson's Keith Adams had 16. Bowers needs one sack to go past the total Lawrence Taylor (North Carolina) had in 1980 when he was ACC Player-of-the-Year.

Bowers already owns the Clemson single-season sack record for a defensive lineman, three more than Gaines Adams had in 2006.

Bowers was named a finalist for four national awards and won two, the Ted Hendricks Award and Bronko Nagurski Award.

Catanzaro Accurate from Long Range

Freshman placekicker Chandler Catanzaro is 12-19 on field goals this year, good for 63.2 percent. However, he is 5-7 on field-goal tries of 40+ yards, good for 71.4 percent. That is the best field-goal percentage on kicks of 40+ yards since 2001, when Aaron Hunt was 5-5 from 40+ yards. Given a minimum of five field-goal attempts, Catanzaro's 71.4-percent figure is sixth-best in school history from 40+ yards. Hunt and Donald Igwebuike own the record (100 percent). Igwebuike was 8-8 from 40+ yards in 1984.

Ellington Reaches 1,000 Rushing Yards

Sophomore running back Andre Ellington went over the 1,000-yard rushing mark for his career when he scored on a 55-yard run against Georgia Tech on October 23. He reached the 1,000-yard mark on his 151st carry. That is the second-fewest carries needed to reach 1,000 yards in school history. C.J. Spiller reached 1,000 yards in just 142 carries, so that remains the school record. Ellington had 491 yards on 68 carries last year as Spiller's backup.

Ellington had 107 rushing yards against the Miami (FL) defense on October 2. That effort included a 71-yard run, the longest by a Tiger since Spiller went 83 yards against Auburn in the 2007 Chick-fil-A Bowl.

Ellington has had four 100-yard games in 2010, including 140 yards at #15 Auburn on September 18.

Ellington Records Multiple Career Highs

Andre Ellington had a career-high 166 yards in 20 carries and a career-high 257 all-purpose yards to go with three touchdowns in leading Clemson to a 27-13 win over Georgia Tech on October 23. The rushing total and all-purpose total were the most by a Tiger since C.J. Spiller had 233 rushing yards and 301 all-purpose yards against the same Georgia Tech team in the 2009 ACC Championship game.

Ellington had touchdown runs of 55 and 42 yards, giving him four touchdowns of 42 yards or more on scrimmage plays, the same amount of running plays for touchdowns from that distance that Spiller had last year.

Ellington has 686 yards on 117 carries for the year, a 5.9-yard average, and 10 rushing touchdowns. He also has a receiving touchdown and a kickoff return for a score, giving him 12 touchdowns this year, second-most in the ACC.

Gilchrist a Standout in the Return Game

Senior Marcus Gilchrist has had a standout year in terms of kick returns. A starting cornerback by trade, Gilchrist has averaged 10.1 yards per punt return and 25.3 yards per kickoff return. He is second in the ACC in kickoff returns and third in punt returns. He is the only ACC player in the top three in the ACC in both categories.

Averaging at least 10 yards per punt return and 25 yards per kickoff return is quite an accomplishment. He is just the sixth Tiger in history to do both in the same year, given a minimum of at least 10 returns in both categories. All six years it has happened have come since 1995.

Hall Takes One to the House

Sophomore safety Rashard Hall scored his first touchdown as a Tiger in the 16-10 loss at Boston College on October 30. He returned an interception 52 yards for a score in the first quarter to give Clemson a 7-0 lead. It was the eighth interception of his career and second this year.

Hall was the second Clemson defender to score in a three-week period. Xavier Brewer returned an interception 61 yards for a touchdown in Clemson's 31-7 win over Maryland on October 16.

Three active Tiger defensive backs have scored touchdowns in their careers. Senior safety DeAndre McDaniel has a pair of scores in his career. As a sophomore, he returned a fumble 28 yards for a touchdown against Nebraska in the 2009 Gator Bowl. In 2009, he returned an interception 23 yards for a score at #8 Miami (FL).

Since Dabo Swinney has been Clemson's head coach (33-game period dating to October 18, 2008), Clemson has 11 touchdowns on returns (one fumble, five kickoff, two punt, three interception).

Harper's Consecutive 140-Yard Rushing Games

Junior running back Jamie Harper has carried the ball for the Clemson offense at running back literally and figuratively over the last quarter of the 2010 season. Running mate Andre Ellington suffered a toe injury at Boston College and played just three snaps over the last four games due to that injury. Ellington will not play in the bowl game.

Harper has been outstanding, especially during recent games. In a loss at Florida State, Harper had 143 yards on 27 carries and finished with 197 yards from scrimmage, including 54 receiving yards on nine receptions. He followed that up with 142 yards on 24 carries in the win at Wake Forest and added 39 yards on three catches for 181 yards from scrimmage. His day included a 63-yard run for a touchdown in the fourth quarter. He was the game's leading rusher against #17 South Carolina with 58 yards on 16 carries, 10 yards more than South Carolina's Marcus Lattimore had in seven more carries.

Harper became the first Tiger to rush for at least 140 yards in consecutive games since 2005, when James Davis had 145 rushing yards at South Carolina in the regular-season finale and 150 rushing yards against Colorado in the Champs Sports Bowl.

Harper has a team-high 726 rushing yards this year and 308 receiving yards for 1,034 yards from scrimmage, most on the team.

Harper Catching Passes Out of Backfield

Junior running back Jamie Harper is known for his ability to catch the ball out of the backfield. He has 31 catches for 308 yards and three scores this season. The 31 catches are sixth-most in a season by a running back in school history. The record is 45 by Travis Zachery in 2001. C.J. Spiller had 36 catches in 2009, so it is an indication of how strong a year Harper has had in this area. Harper had nine catches for 54 yards at Florida State. The nine catches set a Clemson single-game record.

Hopkins Leads Receivers as a Freshman

Freshman wideout DeAndre Hopkins is Clemson's leading receiver this year with 43 receptions for 532 yards and four touchdowns. He leads the team in all three categories. Hopkins has come on strong the last four games. During that time, he has 25 catches for 346 yards and three of his four touchdowns. He has had two 100-yard receiving games in that time period, 106 yards at Florida State and 124 yards against #17 South Carolina.

Hopkins' 43 receptions are third-most in Clemson history among all freshmen and most among first-year freshmen. His yardage figure is also best among first-year freshmen in school history and third among all freshmen. Hopkins is 10 catches short of Derrick Hamilton's freshman reception record and 153 yards behind his freshman receiving yardage mark.

Hopkins, who was a third-team freshman All-American by Phil Steele, will likely be the first Tiger freshman to lead the team in receptions since 2001, when Hamilton had 53 catches. Prior to that, you have to go back to 1990, when the late Terry Smith had 34 catches to lead a team that finished the year with a 10-2 record. Hopkins is the nephew of Smith.

Jenkins Sets Clemson Career Record

Senior defensive tackle Jarvis Jenkins set a school record for blocked kicks in a career when he blocked a field goal in the 14-13 win over #23 N.C. State. It was his second block of the year and fourth of his career, as he also had a blocked extra point against #16 Miami (FL) in 2010. It was the first career miss on an extra point by Matt Boshier.

Jenkins had the last blocked kick by Clemson in 2009 when he blocked a field goal at South Carolina. Jenkins also had a blocked extra point in 2008 against N.C. State. The previous record by a Tiger was three. Mitch Belton (1988-90), and Brian Dawkins (1992-95), and Leomont Evans (1992-95) also had three blocked kicks in their careers.

Maxwell Chasing Special Teams Tackle Record

Graduate cornerback Byron Maxwell has been one of the program's top tacklers over the last few years. He has shown his abilities on scrimmage plays and special teams. Maxwell has seven special teams tackles this year and 44 for his career. He is just three shy of tying the Clemson career record of 47 held by Chad Speck, who played for the Tigers from 1997-00.

Maxwell had one special teams tackle as a freshman, a team-high 21 in 2008 as a sophomore, and 15 as a junior in 2009. He has seven in 2010.

Maxwell is one of the top hitters on Clemson's defense. He has six career caused fumbles, tied for the most among active Tigers.

McDaniel Chasing Interception Record

Senior safety DeAndre McDaniel had his fourth interception of the season in the win over #23 N.C. State on November 6. It was a clutch pick in the endzone off of Russell Wilson. The Wolfpack had recovered a fumble at the Clemson seven, but the interception denied N.C. State a score.

That was the 15th interceptions of McDaniel's career. He is tied for second in school history with his 15 picks and is just two short of Terry Kinard's Clemson career record of 17 set between 1978-82. Kinard is in the Clemson Ring of Honor and College Football Hall of Fame.

Kinard is tied with Fred Knoebel, a two-sport star in the early 1950s, for second place. McDaniel is also third in the nation in career interceptions among active FBS players.

Parker in Top 10 in Passing Yardage & Touchdowns

Sophomore quarterback Kyle Parker has been Clemson's starting quarterback for just two years, but he is already in the top 10 in school history in completions, passing yards, and touchdown passes. Parker has 390 career completions (fifth-most in school history) in his 26 games as a Tiger quarterback. He has 4,605 career passing yards, sixth-most in school history. He needs 43 passing yards in the bowl game to move into fifth place ahead of Rodney Williams. Parker also has 32 career touchdown passes, fifth-most in school history.

Parker Has Improved in Second Half of Season

Sophomore Kyle Parker has shown improvement over the course of 2010. In the last six games, he has completed 108-173 passes (62.4 percent). He has passed for 1,107 yards (184.5 per game) during that stretch.

Parker began the second half of the 2010 schedule by completing 17-27 passes for 167 yards and a touchdown in the 27-13 victory over Georgia Tech, who had beaten Clemson twice in 2009. In the win over #23 N.C. State, Parker completed 20-29 passes for 214 yards and a touchdown, as he won a head-to-head battle with N.C. State quarterback Russell Wilson. Both Parker and Wilson were drafted by the Colorado Rockies last June. Parker was drafted in the first round and Wilson was picked in the fourth round.

Parker also completed 28-44 for 239 yards at Florida State in a narrow 16-13 loss in Tallahassee, then completed 15-17 passes for 194 yards and two scores in a win at Wake Forest. Parker had a 222.9 passing efficiency figure in that game, his career-best given a minimum of 15 attempts.

Parker's Top Dual-Sports Accomplishments

- First student-athlete in Division I history with 20 touchdown passes and 20 home runs in the same academic year.
- First student-athlete to play on an ACC Atlantic Division football and baseball championship team in the same academic year.
- Only ACC athlete to be in the top 10 of his school's career list in career touchdown passes (32, fifth) and home runs (46, eighth).
- Played on two top-25 teams in the same academic year. The Clemson football team finished #24 in the AP poll and the Clemson baseball team finished #4 in both the USA Today poll and the Collegiate Baseball poll.
- Has hit a home run and thrown a touchdown pass at Auburn, Georgia Tech, South Carolina, and Wake Forest.

Parker's Top Football Accomplishments

- Only freshman quarterback nationally to take his team to a conference championship game in 2009.
- Tied for first in the nation in wins by a freshman quarterback in 2009 with Matt Barkley (Southern California).
- His nine wins as a freshman quarterback were four more than any other Clemson freshman in history.
- Established Clemson freshman records for completions (205), passing yards (2,526), and touchdown passes (20) in 2009.
- Led Clemson to victory at #8 Miami (FL) in 2009, tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson has defeated on the road.
- Threw 20 touchdown passes in 2009, fourth-most in a season in school history.
- Set the school record for consecutive games with a touchdown pass (7) in 2009.
- Threw seven touchdown passes in wins over Miami (FL) and Florida State in 2009. It marked the first time Clemson had beaten those two teams in the same year.
- Set a school record for completion percentage in a road game (88.2) at Wake Forest in 2010.

Parker's Top Baseball Accomplishments

- First-round draft pick (#26 overall) in the 2010 Major League draft by the Colorado Rockies
- Eighth in Clemson history in home runs (46).
- Hit 25 home runs in his first 103 games, the fewest games needed to reach 25 homers in Clemson history.
- Four-time ACC Player-of-the-Week in his career. Only national players-of-the-year Kris Benson and Khalil Greene had more.
- First-team All-American by Ping! Baseball, second-team All-American by Baseball America and NCBWA, and third-team All-American by ABCA.
- Hit 20 home runs in 2010, most on Clemson's College World Series Team and 10th-most in a season in Tiger history.
- Scored 85 runs in 2010, fifth-most in the nation.
- First-Team All-ACC selection in 2008 and 2010. He made the 2008 team in the spring in what should have been his senior year of high school.
- Hit three home runs at Wake Forest in 2008 to tie the Clemson single-game record.

Zimmerman Semifinalist for Ray Guy Award

Junior punter Dawson Zimmerman was named one of 10 semifinalists for the Ray Guy Award, the honor presented each year to the nation's top punter. The Ray Guy Award is presented by the Augusta Sports Council. Zimmerman was the only ACC punter in the top 10.

Zimmerman has averaged 42.6 yards on 56 punts this year. But his net punting figure of 41.0 (not including touchbacks) is what is remarkable. That is on pace to be the second-best figure in Clemson history. Only Dale Hatcher's 42.4-yard net average in 1984 is better.

Only 16 of his 56 punts have been returned this year for a total of 92 yards. Eighteen of his punts have been inside the 20 and just seven have resulted in touchbacks. At one point, he went five consecutive games without allowing a punt return yard.

Zimmerman's season has included two punts of at least 76 yards. He had a 79-yarder in the season-opener against North Texas, the second-longest punt in Clemson history, and a 76-yarder at Boston College, the fourth-longest punt in Tiger history. He had a 51.5-yard average on six punts against North Texas, the best performance in the nation that week.

His biggest play of the season might have come against #23 N.C. State on a 38-yard punt. Zimmerman snagged an errant snap with the one hand with the game on the line in the fourth quarter and got a rugby-style punt off that traveled to the N.C. State 15. Clemson won the game by a score of 14-13. Head Coach Dabo Swinney presented Zimmerman with a gameball after the contest for that play.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney

At 41, Dabo Swinney is the youngest head coach in the ACC and one of the youngest in the country. However, his resumé is already stuffed with many significant accomplishments on a school, ACC, and national level.

First, his mere appointment to the position was significant. In October of 2008, he was named Clemson interim head coach, replacing Tommy Bowden, who had been his position coach as a player at Alabama and been Clemson's head coach since 1999. He led the Tigers to a 4-2 record over the remainder of the regular season, including a victory over Steve Spurrier's South Carolina Gamecocks in the regular-season finale. That strong finish led to a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska.

On December 1, 2008, the interim tag was removed from the title and he was named the program's head coach. At the time, there had been 28 interim head coaches at the FBS level since 1970 and those coaches had combined for a record of 26-86-2. Only one of those 28 interim coaches posted a winning record, and that was Swinney. When he was hired as the head coach, Swinney became just the second interim coach to be elevated to the head coach position at the same school during that time period.

In addition to leading the Clemson program to three bowl games on the field in his young career, his players have also excelled in the classroom. In his career as a head coach, his players have an APR score of 982, third-best among active FBS level coaches and best in the conference.

Clemson has had to replace three First-Team All-ACC position players in 2010, as Jacoby Ford, Michael Palmer, and C.J. Spiller moved on to the NFL. It is the first year since 1956 that Clemson had to replace three First-Team All-ACC skill position players in the same year. All three players have done well in the NFL in 2010, further showing their talent level.

Swinney will be just the second Clemson coach to lead the Tiger program into a bowl game in his first two full years as head coach, joining his predecessor, Tommy Bowden. The 2010 schedule is one of the most challenging in school history, as nine bowl teams are on the slate and two of the four non-conference opponents were ranked in the top 25 when they played the Tigers, just the second time in 21 years the Tigers faced two top-25 non-conference opponents in the regular season.

The 2010 season has included wins over bowl teams Georgia Tech, Maryland, and N.C. State. The Wolfpack was ranked #23 in the nation and was leading the ACC in scoring. But the Clemson defense held N.C. State to just one touchdown and 13 points. The team excelled defensively in 2010 and is tied for ninth in the nation in scoring defense and in the top 25 in both total defense and pass defense.

Spiller was a unanimous first-team All-American in Swinney's first year, and defensive end Da'Quan Bowers has duplicated the feat on the defensive side of the ball. The junior won the 2010 Bronko Nagurski Award as the nation's top defensive player, and he received the Ted Hendricks Award as the top defensive end. He was also a finalist for the Bednarik Award and Lombardi Award. He leads the nation in sacks (15.5) and is second in tackles for loss (25).

Bowers is one of four First-Team All-ACC players in 2010, as he is joined by DeAndre McDaniel (S) and Jarvis Jenkins (DT) on defense and Chris Hairston (OT) on offense. Clemson and Maryland had the most First-Team All-ACC selections.

In 2009, Swinney's first full year as head coach, he led the Tigers to their first championship of the ACC's Atlantic Division. The Tigers came just six points short of winning their first ACC title in 18 years. Swinney was named ACC Coach-of-the-Year by Sporting News and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year award.

Swinney accumulated nine wins, second-most among all FBS coaches in their first full year behind Oregon's Chip Kelly. The nine wins tied for fourth-most in ACC history for a first-year head coach. He also led the Tigers to their first bowl win since 2005 in the 21-13 victory over Kentucky in the Music City Bowl.

The Tigers reached the nine-win mark playing a schedule that included four games against top-15 opponents, just the second year in school history (1999 was the other) that Clemson played four games against teams ranked in the top 15 of the AP poll. The Tigers' three FBS non-conference opponents had a combined record of 29-10 in 2009. Clemson gave TCU one of its stiffest tests in a 14-10 Horned Frog victory on September 26.

Swinney's first season included a six-game winning streak at midseason, a streak that saw the Tigers score at least 34 points in every game, a first in school history. During that stretch, the Tigers defeated #8 Miami (FL) on the road. The 40-37 overtime victory tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson has defeated on the road in school history.

That was the second of six straight wins, the longest winning streak for the Clemson program in four years. The streak also included a 40-24 nationally-televised win over Florida State and Bobby Bowden, the Hall of Fame coach who is second in victories in FBS history. The winning streak brought Clemson to a #15 national ranking in the AP poll after the ACC Atlantic Division clinching victory over Virginia on November 21.

The Tigers had success on offense, defense, and special teams during the 2009 season. They were 28th in the nation and third in the ACC in scoring offense (31.1), while the defense was 20th in total defense (314.3) and seventh in pass defense (162.8). Clemson finished in a tie for fifth in the country in interceptions (21) as well.

Clemson added a school-record six kick returns for touchdowns in 2009, four on kickoff returns and two on punt returns.

The main reason Clemson was so outstanding on special teams was the play of college football's most dynamic player (Spiller) in 2009. The Tiger running back was named MVP of the ACC in 2009 and was a consensus first-team All-American. He had five kick returns for touchdowns during the 2009 season, an all-time Clemson record, and established the NCAA record for kickoff returns for touchdowns in a career with seven. He was also the only FBS player to score at least one touchdown in every game in 2009.

Personal Data

Born November 20, 1969 in Birmingham, AL...married to the former Kathleen Bassett...the couple has three sons (Will 12, Drew 10, Clay 7).

Overall, the Tigers held down three positions on the All-ACC First-Team and five spots on the second team. Only Virginia Tech had more representatives.

Swinney became Clemson's interim head coach on October 13, 2008 when Tommy Bowden stepped down. Then on December 1, 2008, the "interim" tag was removed, as he took over on a full-time basis as the Tigers' 25th head coach. He had been Clemson's assistant head coach for two years and had been in charge of the wide receivers since 2003.

Swinney took over a 3-3 team and led it to a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska. He guided Clemson to a 4-1 record over the last five games of the regular season, with the only loss at #24 Florida State. That 4-1 record to end the regular season tied for the best mark in the ACC for that time period. Four of his six regular-season opponents were later bowl participants.

Swinney hit the ground running in his first week as interim head coach, as he prepared for a 5-1 Georgia Tech team. He had to re-organize his staff, and regroup his team and Clemson Nation in just five days. While the Tigers lost by four points, he accomplished many goals in that first week through his outstanding leadership. One of the most impressive demonstrations of unity came during the team's "Tiger Walk."

Prior to the game against the Yellow Jackets, Swinney decided to have his team depart buses outside the Lot 5 parking lot near the WestZone at Memorial Stadium and experience the gameday atmosphere. Dressed in jackets and ties, the team was embraced by thousands of Tiger fans who stood 10 deep for the 200-yard march to the stadium. It was the centerpiece of his "All In" theme in his first week as head coach. It is a tradition that will continue in the future.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney

In his second week as head coach, an off-week, he invited the Clemson student body to a practice, and nearly 1,000 students showed up. He spoke to the group and actually allowed some students to participate during practice, as they were selected to attempt a field goal, punt against a live rush, and field a punt. He also took the entire team to the Greenville Children's Hospital for a visit with young men and women fighting cancer.

He has continued his community involvement through his foundation. His foundation made the first contribution to the cancer fund established for Boston College linebacker Mark Herzlich. Many schools followed his lead the remainder of the season.

The Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year award evaluates coaching performances in terms of coaching excellence, sportsmanship, integrity, academic excellence, and community commitment. It is easy to see why Swinney was a national finalist for that award in his first full season as head coach.

The 1993 Alabama graduate joined the Clemson staff prior to the 2003 season. In his eight years as an assistant or head coach, the Tigers have finished in the top 25 of the final polls four times and totaled 11 wins over top-25 teams, including victories over Florida State (4), Miami (FL) (2), and Tennessee (1), during his tenure in Tigertown.

Swinney coached his wide receiver position to a level of consistency that had not been seen previously at Clemson. He had a wideout finish first or second in the ACC in catches five of the last six years. In his first year, he had three of the top-10 receivers in the ACC, a first in Tiger history. He has coached a First or Second-Team All-ACC wideout every year since 2003 (Derrick Hamilton, Aïrese Currie, Chansi Stuckey, Aaron Kelly, Ford), also an unprecedented feat at Clemson.

In 2004 and 2005, he coached the ACC reception champion (Currie (2004), Stuckey (2005)). It was the first time Clemson had two different players lead the ACC in receptions in consecutive years. In 2007, Kelly led the ACC in yards, giving Swinney an ACC receiving king three out of four years. Stuckey earned First-Team All-ACC honors in back-to-back years, a first for a Tiger wideout in 25 years.

The play of Swinney's wide receivers was a big reason Clemson led the ACC in total offense, rushing offense, and scoring offense during the 2006 season, just the second time an ACC team led the conference in all three categories during the previous 25 seasons. The Tigers also led the league and set school records for yards per play (6.5) and touchdowns (55).

In 2007, Swinney coached Kelly, a First-Team All-ACC selection who led the league in receiving yards per game and touchdown catches (11). He also finished second in receptions per game with a school-record 88 catches, tied for the second-highest total in ACC history. His 11 touchdown catches were a Tiger record as well.

Kelly is Clemson's and the ACC's career reception leader with 232 catches. He also owns the school touchdown reception record with 20. The previous record of 18 was held by Glenn Smith, who established the record in 1951.

The Alabama native has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the nation. In 2006, he was listed as the #5 recruiter in the nation by Rivals.com. It marked the second straight year that he was lauded by the website as a top-25 national recruiter. He signed 38 players in his five recruiting seasons as an assistant coach and was a major reason Clemson's 2008 recruiting class was rated #2 in the nation by ESPN.com when he signed 11 players. He was named one of the top-25 recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com in 2007 as well.

When Swinney accepted the interim head coaching position on October 13, 2008, he described his feelings as "bittersweet" because he was taking over for Bowden, who had been his first position coach at Alabama in 1989. He had also brought Swinney back to the coaching profession in 2003 and has had a profound effect on his life. Both had followed similar paths as players, as Bowden was a walk-on at West Virginia and Swinney was a walk-on at Alabama.

Swinney received a commerce & business administration degree from Alabama in 1993 after lettering three times (1990-92). A walk-on who went on to earn a scholarship, Swinney was a wide receiver on Alabama's 1992 National Championship team. He was also named Academic All-SEC along with being an SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member in 1990 and 1992.

Along with his appearance in the 1993 Sugar Bowl, his Alabama teams played in the 1990 Sugar Bowl, 1991 Fiesta Bowl, and 1991 Blockbuster Bowl. Both Sugar Bowl appearances came after winning the SEC Championship game.

After his playing career, Swinney served as a graduate assistant from 1993-95 at Alabama, where he coached in the 1994 Gator Bowl and 1995 Citrus Bowl. In December of 1995, he received a master's degree in business administration from Alabama.

He became a full-time assistant coach at Alabama in February of 1996 under Head Coach Gene Stallings (now in the Hall of Fame) and coached a total of five seasons there on a full-time basis. He was assigned to coach the Crimson Tide's wide receivers and tight ends in 1996, a season that saw Alabama win the SEC Western Division title and make an Outback Bowl appearance. The following year, he solely coached the tight ends under Head Coach Mike DuBose.

In 1998, he coached Alabama's wide receivers, a position he held for three seasons. At the end of the 1999 campaign, Swinney coached the Crimson Tide in the 2000 Orange Bowl after winning the SEC Championship game. Wide receiver Freddie Milons was the game MVP.

During his time at Alabama, Swinney was a part of six teams with at least 10 wins, five top-10 finishes, one national title (1992), three SEC championships (1989,92,99), and five SEC Western Division titles (1992,93,94,96,99) as a player and coach. He has coached the #2 receiver at Alabama (Milons) along with the #1 (Kelly) and #2 (Hamilton) receivers in Tiger history.

Since 1997, he has had 20 former players either drafted or sign free-agent contracts with NFL teams. The list includes Hamilton, Currie, Kevin Youngblood, Stuckey, and Milons, an All-American at Alabama.

From April of 2001 through February of 2003, Swinney was in private business in Alabama. He married the former Kathleen Bassett in 1994. They have three sons, Will (12), Drew (10), and Clay (7).

Offensive Guards & Centers
12th Season

- In his 12th season as an assistant coach at Clemson; he has worked on the offensive side of the ball each of the 12 years.
- In his 12 seasons at Clemson, the Tigers have been bowl eligible all 12 years and have played in 11 bowl games. The Tigers have set over 100 school records on offense since he has been with the program.
- Has been the offensive coordinator on two (2001,03) of the top-four offenses in Tiger history.
- Has coached at least one All-ACC player each of the last five years. That includes two first-team selections in 2007 (Chris McDuffie, Barry Richardson). Both players earned All-America honors, the first time two Tiger offensive linemen on the same team were All-Americans. Richardson was a two-time First-Team All-ACC selection as well. Thomas Austin earned third-team All-America honors in 2009.
- As offensive coordinator at Clemson in 2001, Woodrow Dantzler became the first player in NCAA history to total 2,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in one season.
- The 2006 offensive line paved the way for James Davis and C.J. Spiller to gain over 2,000 combined rushing yards, a big reason Clemson was fifth in the nation in rushing that year.
- The 2009 season was his 25th in college coaching as a full-time staff member and he helped the Tigers to their first ACC Atlantic Division title and a top-25 final ranking.
- Served as an assistant coach at Florida State from 1983-93. He was on the 1993 staff that won the national title. He was the offensive coordinator of that record-setting team that featured Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward.
- Florida State was 10-0-1 in bowl games with him on the staff. The Seminoles were also 44-6 when he was the offensive coordinator.
- Came to Clemson after serving five seasons as head coach at South Carolina. He led the Gamecocks to a bowl win over West Virginia in the 1994 Carquest Bowl, the first bowl win in school history.
- His son Jeff is Clemson's recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach, giving the Tigers their first full-time, father-son coaching combination in history.

#19 Richard Jackson • PK/P • *Gr.

Is 20-33 on field goals and 41-43 on extra points for 104 points in 21 games (14 starts) in his career...the only kicker in the nation to make six field goals in a game over the last two seasons...showed his abilities in the Spring Game as a punter, he averaged 50.3 yards on 10 attempts...there was no threat of a block in the Spring Game and no returns, but still had quite a day...received his undergraduate degree from Clemson in May, 2010.

2010: Is 0-2 on field goals and 1-1 on extra points for one point in two games (one start)...made an extra point against #23 N.C. State...despite not playing much, he has supplied leadership and was chosen as a game captain for a contest at midseason.

2009: Was 26th in the nation in field goals per game last season, he made 20 in 31 attempts in 14 games...only player in the nation to kick six field goals in a game in 2009, he accomplished that against Boston College on Sept. 19...named the Lou Groza Award National Player-of-the-Week for that performance and was also named ACC Specialist-of-the-Week...sixth in the ACC in field goals per game (1.43)...seventh in the ACC and 55th in the nation in scoring overall with 7.2 points per game...had 101 points on 20 field goals and 41 extra points...third in the ACC in kick scoring points per game, but first in total kick scoring points with 101...just the fourth kicker in Clemson history to score at least 100 points in a season...second to C.J. Spiller in total points scored, Spiller had 128...ninth player in Clemson history with at least 100 points scored in a season, regardless of position...named Clemson's special teams player-of-the-week by the coaching staff in consecutive games against Georgia Tech (regular season) and Boston College...set or tied four records...in addition to his record-tying six field goals against Boston College, Jackson had 217 field goal yards in that game to set a school record...had three field goals of 50 yards or more to set a Tiger single-season record...also tied single-game field goal percentage mark with his 6-6 performance against Boston College...made nine straight field goals at one point early in the season...was 2-2 on field goals at Georgia Tech, including a 53-yarder...made two field goals at Miami, including a 30-yarder on Clemson's last drive with just five seconds left to send the game into overtime tied at 34-34...had two field goals and 10 total points in the win over Virginia...missed his only attempt in ACC Championship game against Georgia Tech, but it was from 52 yards on a rough field...also punted three times during the season...had a better percentage in 2009 from 50 yards out than from the 40-49 yards...missed 11 field goals in 2009, but eight of the 11 were from 45+ yards...made 41-43 extra points; both misses were against Florida State...won the starting kicking job in August after a close battle with Spencer Benton.

2008: Played against The Citadel and S.C. State; he kicked off once in each game...served as the backup placekicker to Mark Buchholz.

2007: Played three games...had one kickoff against Louisiana-Monroe and one against Central Michigan...made his only extra-point attempts against Central Michigan and Duke...did not attempt a punt as the backup punter.

2006: Red-shirted.

Before Clemson: Averaged 46 yards per punt as a senior at Riverside High...Parade All-American, Clemson's first Parade All-America kicker since Chris Gardocki in 1988...#3 placekicker in the nation by Rivals.com...first-team All-American by EA Sports...#11 player in South Carolina by Rivals.com...#10 kicker in the nation by Scout.com...Shrine Bowl selection...South Carolina High School Coaches Association Special Teams Player-of-the-Year...first-team all-state by The State...8-11 on field goals as a junior with a long of 50 yards and averaged 44 yards per punt...set the state record with a 64-yard field goal as a senior; it was featured as one of the plays-of-the-week on ESPN; also made a 47-yard field goal in that game...high school teammate of fellow Tiger Michael Wade...coached by Don Frost...chose Clemson over Georgia, Louisiana State, Maryland, and Texas A&M...born Aug. 9, 1987...graduated from Clemson with an economics degree in May, 2010.

North Texas 10
Clemson 35

September 4, 2010
Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Andre Ellington and Jamie Harper both rushed for over 100 yards to lead Clemson to a 35-10 win over North Texas at Memorial Stadium on September 4. In the first-ever meeting between the two schools, Ellington and Harper became the first Tiger duo to rush for over 100 yards in one game since 2007.

Clemson used two big plays to take a 14-0 lead. Ellington's 60-yard touchdown run on the second offensive snap of the season gave the Tigers the lead for good, then Kyle Parker connected with Brandon Clear for a 70-yard touchdown pass late in the second quarter. It was Clear's first touchdown and fourth reception as a Tiger.

After North Texas responded with a touchdown, Harper's eight-yard touchdown catch gave the Tigers a 21-7 halftime lead.

The Tigers surrendered 462 yards of offense to North Texas and lost the time-of-possession battle by nearly 24 minutes, but Clemson averaged 9.2 yards per play and 9.8 yards per carry.

Ellington rushed for 122 yards and two touchdowns on 12 carries, while Harper rushed for 101 yards and a rushing score on nine carries. Harper also added an eight-yard touchdown catch for the Tigers, who had 422 total yards and 246 rushing yards.

Dawson Zimmerman was named ACC Specialist-of-the-Week thanks to his 51.5-yard average on six punts, including a 79-yard boot in the second quarter.

DeAndre McDaniel led the Tigers in tackles with 11. Da'Quan Bowers had two of Clemson's six sacks, while Jarvis Jenkins added three of the Tigers' 13 tackles for loss.

Game 2

Presbyterian College 21
Clemson 58

September 11, 2010
Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Eight different Tigers scored a touchdown in Clemson's 58-21 victory over Presbyterian College at Memorial Stadium on September 11. It was the first meeting between the two schools since 1957.

Clemson scored 21 points in both the first and second quarters to take a 42-0 halftime lead. After the Tigers took a 52-0 lead, the Blue Hose finally moved the ball into Clemson territory for the first time late in the third quarter and later scored three touchdowns.

The Tigers scored eight touchdowns in their eight red-zone possessions and totaled 414 total yards (212 rushing, 202 passing).

Kyle Parker and Tajh Boyd both threw two touchdown passes, while Donny McElveen added a passing score to give Clemson five touchdown passes in the game. Roderick McDowell totaled a game-high 86 rushing yards and Daniel Barnes added 79 rushing yards.

Ten different Tigers accounted for the team's 11 catches, including two by Dwayne Allen. McDowell, Boyd, Barnes, DeAndre Hopkins, and Kasey Nobles all scored their first career touchdowns as well.

Andre Branch led the Tiger defense with three tackles for loss and both of Clemson's sacks, while Malliciah Goodman had both of the Tigers' caused fumbles. A total of 77 Tigers saw action in the game.

Game 3

Clemson 24
Auburn 27 ^(OT)

September 18, 2010
Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, AL

Clemson jumped out to a 17-0 lead, but #15 Auburn rallied for a 27-24 overtime win at Jordan-Hare Stadium on September 18. The crowd of 87,451 was the largest to witness a Clemson football game. It was also the first meeting between the two at Auburn since 1971.

After gaining just four yards in three overtime plays, Wes Byrum kicked a 39-yard field goal to give Auburn a 27-24 lead. On Clemson's overtime possession, it gained a first down, then faced a third-and-goal at the eight. Kyle Parker found Jaron Brown open in the endzone for a potential game-winning score, but the ball went off Brown's fingertips and fell incomplete. Chandler Catanzaro booted an apparent 26-yard field goal to tie the score, but Clemson was flagged for a penalty. Catanzaro's ensuing 32-yard field-goal attempt was wide-left.

While Clemson's defense held Auburn to three straight three-and-outs to start the game, Clemson took a 17-0 lead on Jamie Harper's spectacular 24-yard touchdown catch. Auburn dented the scoreboard as time expired in the first half on Byrum's 35-yard field goal.

Auburn scored all three of its touchdowns in the third quarter to take a 24-17 lead before Andre Ellington's two-yard touchdown run with 12:36 left in the fourth quarter tied the score.

Ellington had a game-high 140 yards on 22 carries and four catches for 48 yards to lead Clemson, who totaled 27 first downs and did not commit a turnover. Harper added 44 rushing yards and three receptions for 48 yards. He also became the first Clemson running back since 2002 to total two receiving touchdowns in one game.

Da'Quan Bowers had nine tackles, four tackles for loss, and a sack, while DeAndre McDaniel and Xavier Brewer added interceptions.

Game 4

Miami (FL)	30
Clemson	21

October 2, 2010
Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

The #16 Miami Hurricanes scored 27 first-half points and held on for a 30-21 win over Clemson on Homecoming at Memorial Stadium on October 2. It was the Tigers' first Homecoming loss since 2001.

Andre Ellington's 71-yard and 14-yard touchdown runs gave Clemson a 14-7 lead. But behind 280 yards of offense and four touchdown passes by Jacory Harris, the Hurricanes took a 27-14 lead at halftime. Miami capped its first-half scoring when Harris connected with Leonard Hankerson for a seven-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter after Kyle Parker's interception with 24 seconds left.

However, Clemson's defense responded in the second half, holding Miami to three points and 96 total yards of offense. Ellington's three-yard touchdown run cut the Hurricanes' lead to six points.

Facing a fourth-and-one at the Miami 20 with under nine minutes left in the game, Brandon Harris stopped Ellington for no gain. The Hurricanes then drove 68 yards on the ensuing drive and clinched the game with Matt Boshers' 29-yard field goal with 2:40 left in the game.

The Tigers turned the ball over two more times, their fifth and sixth turnovers of the game. All six turnovers (three interceptions, three fumbles) were lost in Clemson territory. The Hurricanes also had a 40-27 advantage in average starting field position.

Ellington had a game-high 107 rushing yards and three touchdowns, while Miami's Damien Berry totaled 101 yards on 24 carries. Hankerson added a game-high seven catches for 147 yards and three touchdowns. Miami overcame 12 penalties for 105 yards as well.

Da'Quan Bowers led Clemson's defense with seven tackles, including three-and-a-half tackles for loss, a sack, and a caused fumble.

Game 5

Clemson	16
North Carolina	21

October 9, 2010
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, NC

North Carolina used its four solid offensive drives and scored three touchdowns in its 21-16 win over Clemson at Kenan Stadium on October 9. It was the first meeting in Chapel Hill since 2002.

The Tar Heels drove 48 yards in 12 plays on their first drive of the game to take an early lead. Johnny White's four-yard touchdown run capped the drive. After both teams traded punts on the game's next four possessions, Chandler Catanzaro booted a 48-yard field goal.

Late in the first half, the Tar Heels drove 80 yards. T.J. Yates' nine-yard touchdown pass to Jheranie Boyd gave the Tar Heels a 14-3 lead.

In the third quarter, DeAndre Hopkins returned a punt 31 yards to the Tar Heel 21. Three plays later, Jamie Harper scored on a 10-yard draw play to cut North Carolina's lead to 14-10.

After Catanzaro missed a 42-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter, North Carolina drove 76 yards in 14 plays and took 8:06 off the clock. Its drive was extended by a penalty on third or fourth down three times. White, who had a team-high 89 rushing yards and two scores along with six catches for 90 yards, scored on a 26-yard run.

But with 5:31 left in the game, Kyle Parker connected with Jaron Brown for a 74-yard touchdown pass. The two-point conversion attempt failed and the Tigers trailed 21-16. However, the Tar Heels were able to milk all but 13 seconds off the clock to preserve the win. In the fourth quarter, North Carolina had the ball for 13:15.

Clemson, who did not allow a sack, outgained North Carolina 305-255, while neither team committed a turnover. However, the Tigers were flagged nine times for 81 yards. The Tar Heels, who were 3-14 on third down, converted all four of their fourth-down opportunities.

Hopkins, who was named ACC Rookie-of-the-Week, had seven catches for 46 yards and added the 31-yard punt return. Dwayne Allen totaled seven catches for 55 yards, while Brown had four receptions for 107 yards. Da'Quan Bowers had both of the game's sacks.

Game 6

Maryland	7
Clemson	31

October 16, 2010
Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Behind two returns for touchdowns and a stingy defense, Clemson topped Maryland 31-7 at Memorial Stadium on October 16. It was Clemson's biggest win over the Terrapins since 1996. It was also a special day for the Tigers, who retired the #28 of former All-American C.J. Spiller (2006-09) during halftime ceremonies.

The Tigers took the opening kickoff and drove 36 yards before Chandler Catanzaro kicked a 42-yard field goal. After the teams traded punts on the next six possessions, Maryland drove 81 yards, capped by running back Da'Rel Scott's touchdown pass to Danny O'Brien.

But Maryland's only lead of the game lasted just 12 seconds, as Andre Ellington, who earned ACC Specialist-of-the-Week honors, returned the ensuing kickoff 87 yards for a touchdown.

After the Terrapins drove down the field, Clemson's defense stiffened, as Da'Quan Bowers sacked O'Brien on third-and-one from the Tiger seven. Baltz then missed a 33-yard field-goal attempt.

The Tigers drove 80 yards in 13 plays to take a 17-7 lead with 32 seconds left before halftime. Jamie Harper's one-yard plunge on fourth-and-goal capped the drive.

After Jaron Brown returned a punt 41 yards in the third quarter, Ellington scored on a one-yard run. In the fourth quarter, Xavier Brewer picked off a pass and returned it 61 yards for the game's final score. It was one of three Tiger interceptions in the fourth quarter.

Clemson did not commit a turnover, while it totaled 268 combined yards on interception, kickoff, and punt returns.

Bowers had all three of Clemson's sacks and four tackles for loss to earn ACC Defensive Lineman-of-the-Week honors.

Game 7

Georgia Tech

Clemson

27

October 23, 2010

Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Andre Ellington rushed for 166 yards and totaled three touchdowns to lead Clemson to a 27-13 victory over Georgia Tech at Memorial Stadium on October 23. The Tigers' 14-point win snapped the Yellow Jackets' four-game winning streak in the series.

The Tigers jumped out to a 17-0 lead thanks in part to a 55-yard touchdown run and 42-yard touchdown run by Ellington, who was named ACC Offensive Back-of-the-Week. The Yellow Jackets put together a 15-play, 71-yard drive late in the second quarter, capped by Scott Blair's 26-yard field goal, to cut Clemson's lead to 17-3.

After Blair kicked another 26-yard field goal on the opening drive of the second half, Kyle Parker's 35-yard screen pass to Jamie Harper moved the ball deep into Georgia Tech territory. Three plays later, Ellington's 10-yard touchdown catch upped the Tigers' lead to 24-6.

Georgia Tech responded with a 14-play, 78-yard drive, capped by Joshua Nesbitt's nine-yard touchdown pass to Anthony Allen on fourth-and-six. But the Tigers held the ball for 12:21 in the fourth quarter and Georgia Tech only totaled six offensive plays.

Clemson capped the game's scoring with a 15-play, 64-yard drive that ended in Chandler Catanzaro's 21-yard field goal with 3:28 left in the game. All 14 offensive plays of the drive were running plays.

The Tigers were 9-15 on third-down conversions, did not commit a turnover, and did not allow a sack. Ellington had a game-high 257 all-purpose yards, while Parker was 17-27 for 167 yards and a score.

Clemson's defense limited Georgia Tech's option attack to only 242 rushing yards and 325 total yards. Nesbitt was held to just two yards on 15 carries, with a long rush of five yards. Jarvis Jenkins had a team-high 10 tackles for the Tigers, who had eight tackles for loss.

Game 8

Clemson

10

Boston College

16

October 30, 2010

Alumni Stadium • Chestnut Hill, MA

Montel Harris rushed for 143 yards and added the only offensive touchdown of the game on a 36-yard reception to lead Boston College to a 16-10 victory over Clemson at Alumni Stadium on October 30.

Clemson took an early 7-0 lead when Rashard Hall intercepted a pass and returned it 52 yards for a score. The Eagles responded with a 70-yard drive, capped by Nate Freese's 36-yard field goal.

After Chandler Catanzaro booted a 31-yard field goal to up Clemson's lead to 10-3 late in the first quarter, Boston College put together a 17-play, 62-yard drive that lasted 9:25. The drive was prolonged by a costly Tiger penalty on third-and-26 and was capped by Freese's 36-yard field goal with 8:32 remaining in the second quarter.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Tigers fumbled the ball and the Eagles recovered. On the next play, Chase Rettig connected with Harris out of the backfield for a 36-yard touchdown pass. Freese later added a 36-yard field goal as time expired in the first half.

Neither team dented the scoreboard in the second half. The Tigers routinely moved the ball between the 20s, but they were unable to capitalize in the red zone. The Tiger defense limited the Eagles to only 84 total yards in 26 plays in the second half and forced a punt on each of Boston College's six offensive drives in the second half.

Harris rushed for 143 yards on 37 carries and had 179 all-purpose yards to lead Boston College, who totaled 305 total yards. The Eagle defense limited Clemson to 264 total yards even though the Tigers amassed 19 first downs. Boston College's defense also held Clemson to only three total points on the Tigers' three red-zone possessions.

Andre Ellington had a team-high 44 rushing yards for the Tigers, while Kyle Parker was 21-39 passing for 176 yards and two interceptions. Dwayne Allen added seven catches for 57 yards, both game-highs. The Tigers were 1-3 on field goals, while Boston College made all three of its field-goal attempts.

Game 9

N.C. State

13

Clemson

November 6, 2010

Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

Clemson overcame a 10-0 deficit in the second half to rally for a 14-13 win over #23 N.C. State at Memorial Stadium on November 6. Clemson won its seventh game in a row in the Textile Bowl matchup.

N.C. State took its first possession 58 yards and scored when Russell Wilson hit Mustafa Greene for a three-yard touchdown pass. The Tigers responded with a 15-play, 65-yard drive that lasted 6:54, but the drive stalled and Clemson missed a 37-yard field-goal attempt.

The Tigers, who had 190 total yards in the first half, had drives of 10 and 14 plays later in the first half, but neither resulted in points. However, the defense kept Clemson in the game, as Jarvis Jenkins blocked a field goal and DeAndre McDaniel, who was named ACC Defensive Back-of-the-Week, intercepted a pass in the endzone.

After the Tigers turned the ball over for the third time, this time at their own 13, Clemson's defense held again and forced a 28-yard field goal early in the third quarter that upped N.C. State's lead to 10-0.

Greene later fumbled and Corico Hawkins recovered at the N.C. State 22. Five plays later, Kyle Parker connected with DeAndre Hopkins for a 12-yard touchdown pass over the middle on third-and-goal.

After another Wolfpack field goal in the fourth quarter, Jamie Harper scored on a four-yard touchdown run with 6:18 left in the game to give Clemson a 14-13 lead. The Tiger defense held on N.C. State's last two possessions, giving Clemson its first one-point win since 2005. With three minutes left in the game, Dawson Zimmerman also was clutch when he made a one-handed grab of an errant punt snap and pinned N.C. State at its own 15 on his hurried 38-yard punt.

Parker was 20-29 passing for 214 yards and a score, while Harper had 60 rushing yards and 34 receiving yards to lead Clemson's offense.

The Tiger defense limited N.C. State 22 points and 164 yards below its season averages in those categories. In 20 carries by Wolfpack running backs, their longest carry was just four yards.

Game 10

Clemson 13

Florida State 16

November 13, 2010
Doak S. Campbell Stadium • Tallahassee, FL

Dustin Hopkins kicked a 55-yard field goal on the last play of the game to lift Florida State to a 16-13 win over Clemson at Doak S. Campbell Stadium on November 13.

The Tigers lost a heartbreaker despite outgaining the Seminoles by 84 yards along with 116 more yards of starting field position. Clemson also had a 25-16 advantage in first downs and was 9-18 on third-down conversions. Eight of Clemson's 10 drives reached the Seminole 36 as well. However, Clemson netted just six combined points in its four red-zone possessions and missed two field goals.

Clemson drove 82 yards in 12 plays on the game's opening possession and scored on Jamie Harper's 26-yard touchdown run.

In the second quarter, the Tigers recovered a fumble at the Seminole 10. After three plays netted five yards, Chandler Catanzaro kicked a 22-yard field goal to give Clemson a 10-3 lead, which the Tigers carried into halftime along with a 15-3 advantage in first downs.

On the first play of the fourth quarter with Clemson ahead 10-6, Xavier Rhodes intercepted a pass in the endzone. Twelve plays and 85 yards later, E.J. Manuel scored on an eight-yard touchdown run.

The Tigers tied the score with 57 seconds left on Catanzaro's 29-yard field goal, but Manuel's 18-yard pass to Rodney Smith set up Hopkins' game-winning 55-yard field goal as time expired.

Harper had 143 yards on 27 carries and a game-high nine catches, the most by a Tiger running back in history. DeAndre Hopkins totaled eight receptions for 106 yards. It was Clemson's first loss in 25 years when the Tigers had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in the same game. Da'Quan Bowers added a team-high eight tackles, two tackles for loss, one sack, and one interception as well.

Game 11

Clemson 30

Wake Forest 10

November 20, 2010
BB&T Field • Winston-Salem, NC

Kyle Parker was 15-17 passing for 194 yards and two touchdowns to lead Clemson to a 30-10 win over Wake Forest at BB&T Field on November 20. It was the Tigers' largest victory margin at Wake Forest since 1978 and made Clemson bowl eligible for the 12th year in a row.

Field goals of 43 yards and 22 yards by Chandler Catanzaro put Clemson up by a score of 6-0. Then with 46 seconds remaining in the second quarter, Parker connected with Jaron Brown for a 40-yard touchdown pass to give the Tigers a 13-0 halftime lead.

The Tigers built a 20-0 lead in the third quarter when DeAndre Hopkins caught a two-yard touchdown pass from Parker. Through three quarters, the Tiger defense allowed no points and only 97 yards.

In the fourth quarter, Catanzaro, who was 3-3 on field-goal attempts in the game, made a 32-yard field goal. After a 45-yard field goal by Jimmy Newman put Wake Forest on the scoreboard, Jamie Harper rushed 63 yards on the next snap to give Clemson a 30-3 lead.

Wake Forest mustered an 11-play, 79-yard drive, capped by Josh Harris' one-yard touchdown run, to cut the Tiger lead to 30-10 with 6:02 left in the game. But Clemson held onto the ball for the rest of the game to close out the 20-point win. All 10 Demon Deacon points and a majority of their yards came in the fourth quarter against Clemson's defense that predominately featured second and third-team players.

Harper had 142 yards on 24 carries and three catches for 39 yards, while Brown had five catches for a game-high 93 yards for the Tigers, who were 9-16 on third-down conversions. Da'Quan Bowers led Clemson's defense with two of the team's three sacks.

Game 12

South Carolina 29

Clemson 7

November 27, 2010
Memorial Stadium • Clemson, SC

South Carolina, ranked #17 in the nation, scored the game's final 29 points to defeat Clemson 29-7 at Memorial Stadium on November 27. It marked the first time in 40 years that the Gamecocks beat the Tigers in back-to-back seasons. It was also the 108th all-time meeting.

Clemson grabbed a 7-0 lead on the game's first drive when Kyle Parker connected with DeAndre Hopkins for a 45-yard touchdown pass. The two hooked up for a 30-yard catch earlier in the drive. Hopkins had a game-high seven receptions for 124 yards in the game.

A Tiger penalty after Clemson's defense forced a would-be fourth down prolonged South Carolina's first drive, and Spencer Lanning made his first of three field goals, this time from 46 yards.

After the two teams traded punts, disaster struck for Clemson. The punt snap from the Tiger 27 was errant and Brian Maddox's recovery and four-yard return set up Stephen Garcia's five-yard touchdown pass to Patrick DiMarco on the next play to give South Carolina the lead for good. It was the first of three turnovers for the Tigers, while the Gamecocks did not commit a turnover in the contest.

On the first play of the second quarter, Garcia hit Alshon Jeffery for a 37-yard touchdown reception. Jeffery had a game-high 141 yards on five catches. Lanning later added a 25-yard field goal to give South Carolina a 19-7 lead at halftime.

Antonio Allen's 37-yard interception return for a touchdown early in the third quarter put the game out of reach. Clemson's defense held the Gamecocks to only 68 yards on 27 plays in the second half, but its offense could not reach paydirt thanks in part to a 39-21 advantage for South Carolina in average starting field position in the game.

Corico Hawkins registered a team-high 13 tackles and was a big reason Marcus Lattimore totaled just 48 yards on 23 carries.

Jess Neely's last Clemson team won eight games in the regular season with just one loss to a Tulane team that would finish the season with an 8-1-1 record and #5 ranking by the Associated Press. The 8-1 Tigers were rewarded with an invitation to play Boston College in the fourth Cotton Bowl, but Clemson first had to get permission from the Southern Conference, which they immediately granted. The 1939 season not only resulted in Clemson's first bowl appearance, but also the Tigers' first, First-Team Associated Press All-American, Banks McFadden.

On the last play of the first quarter, Bru Trexler punted to Boston College's Charlie O'Rourke, who fielded the punt on the Clemson 40 and returned it to the 13. Two running plays lost 10 yards, but on third down Frank Davis gained six. Alex Lukachik then kicked a 34-yard field goal to put the Eagles up, 3-0.

Clemson's scoring drive began when McFadden returned a punt to the 33. Charlie Timmons rushed for 15 yards in two plays, and two plays after that, McFadden hit Wister Jackson with a 16-yard pass to the Eagle 20. Timmons ran the final 20 yards in three carries, but Shad Bryant missed the extra point.

as Joe Blalock fumbled after a short pass.

The game turned into a defensive struggle in the second half, although Boston College did penetrate deep into Clemson territory on two occasions. The Eagles took the opening kickoff to the Clemson 19, but a holding penalty and an incomplete pass ended the threat and BC was forced to punt.

Late in the game, the Eagles drove to the Clemson 11 yard line, but Bryant and McFadden each broke up two passes and Clemson took over possession on downs.

McFadden effectively bottled up the Eagles other than those drives with his punting. His 44-yard average on 11 kicks, including two boots for 51 and 55 yards in the second half, prevented Boston College from getting good field position, and the Clemson defense made the 6-3 score stand.

Later in the quarter, a 51-yard punt by McFadden started Boston College at its 20. The Eagles fumbled on first down and Clemson's George Fritts recovered at the 24. The Tigers could do nothing with the gift, however, Clemson opened the 1948 season with a 53-0 shutout of Presbyterian College in the Tigers' first-ever night home game and they closed the regular season with a 20-0 blanking of The Citadel in the first game played at the Bulldogs' Johnson Hagood Stadium. In between, the Tigers shut out three more opponents and beat five others on the way to a 10-0 record, a #11 ranking in the polls, and an invitation to play Missouri in the fourth Gator Bowl.

Clemson kicked off, but three plays later Missouri fumbled and Clemson's Bob Martin recovered at the 19. A pass interference call gave Clemson the ball at the one, and Fred Cone scored from there. Jack Miller added the point.

Ray Mathews recovered a Missouri fumble later in the quarter to give Clemson the ball at its 35. Mathews took the next play for 26 yards and five plays later Bobby Gage passed to Martin for 19 more. Cone scored for the second time from the one, and Miller's conversion gave the Southern Conference champs a 14-0 lead.

After a kickoff, Missouri launched an 80-yard drive to score its first touchdown. Harold Entsminger capped the 13-play march with a quarterback sneak.

Gage was intercepted on the next Clemson drive and Wilbur Volz returned the theft to the Missouri 46. Missouri kept the ball on the ground and Entsminger carried over ran and passed for 19 yards on two separate plays and the Tigers scored on a flea-flicker pass from Cone to Gage to John Poulos. Miller completed the 80-yard drive with his third PAT.

A Missouri punt rolled dead at the Clemson one, and after an incomplete pass, Gage threw a pass that hit the ground in the end zone and was ruled a safety. Clemson's lead was then cut to 21-16.

Clemson then launched an 11-play surge to the Missouri 12. Miller kicked a 32-yard field goal that would prove to be the winning points.

Dave Ashley returned the kickoff to the Missouri 40, and seven plays later, Richard Braznell passed to Kenneth Bounds for a 20-yard touchdown. Dawson added the point to bring Missouri within one point with five minutes left. Clemson took the kickoff and ran out the clock to preserve the win.

from the one for the score. Dawson added his second point after and the game was tied up at 14.

Clemson took the second-half kickoff and used up six minutes of clock on the way to its third touchdown. Gage

Clemson's bid for a repeat of the 1948 perfect season ended when the Tigers had to rely on the toe of Charlie Radcliff to tie South Carolina after three season-opening shutouts. Clemson regrouped, however, with a 13-12 win at Wake Forest and then won the remaining four games by convincing margins. The Tigers' 8-0-1 mark and second-place finish in the Southern Conference earned them a bid to play Miami (FL), who was also undefeated at 9-0-1, in the 17th Orange Bowl.

After a scoreless first quarter, Clemson got on track with a 45-yard pass from Billy Hair to Bob Hudson that put the Tigers at the Miami one. Fred Cone capped the 76-yard drive with a sweep for the score and Radcliff tacked on the extra point.

Clemson mounted a six-play, 70-yard drive in the third quarter for its second touchdown. Hair threw a 31-yard pass to Ray Mathews, who, as the papers said, "made a circus catch with two men on his back," to move the Tigers to the Miami 28. Hair tossed a pass to Glenn Smith at the Miami seven and Smith scrambled in for the score.

Miami caught fire two minutes later when Jack Delbello intercepted a pass in the Clemson end zone and returned it to the 40, and then a 10-yard penalty was assessed the Watson added the conversion.

Miami drove 95 yards in just five plays for its second score of the game. Ed Lutes caught a pass at midfield and rambled down to the Clemson 17 before he was stopped. On fourth down, Jack Hackett threw to Frank Smith for the score and Watson's point put Miami in the lead for the first time, 14-13.

Mallios' 80-yard punt return was called back and two clipping infractions along with one unnecessary roughness penalty put Miami in a deep hole with six minutes left in the game. Frank Smith took a pitch-out from Hackett, but before Smith could get out of the end zone, Sterling Smith, a second-team defensive guard for Clemson, tripped him up for a safety, and Clemson led 15-14. Don Wade ended the last Miami threat with an interception, his second of the game, and Clemson ran out the clock.

Tigers for unnecessary roughness. On the next play, Frank Smith ran a reverse for 45 yards to move to the Clemson five. Harry Mallios took a pitch from quarterback Bob Schneidenbach in for the score and Gordon Clemson won the first three games of the 1951 season as well as the last four. In between, however, the Tigers dropped games to Pacific and South Carolina on the road. The Gator Bowl Committee invited Clemson with its 7-2 record to play Miami (FL) in a rematch of the 1951 Orange Bowl, but the Southern Conference had decided to ban its teams from any bowl competition that season. Clemson and Maryland accepted bowl bids anyway, and were prohibited from playing any other conference team except each other the next year.

The Tigers opened the game with a bang as Billy Hair took Elmer Tremont's kickoff and returned it 72 yards to the Miami 26, but Clemson could only make six yards in four downs and the Tigers turned the ball over.

After an exchange of punts, Miami mounted an 82-yard drive to score the game's first touchdown. The drive was highlighted by quarterback Jack Hackett's only two passes of the game - a 15-yarder to Frank McDonald and a 40-yard throw to Ed Lutes. Two plays later, fullback Harry Mallios took the pitch and ran 11 yards for the score. Tremont added the extra point and Miami led, 7-0.

Miami defensive back Jim Dooley intercepted the first of four passes to kill the Clemson drive at the Miami 15. His interception total is still an NCAA record for an individual two yards out. Tremont converted again and Miami had all the points it needed.

The Clemson defense turned stingy in the second half, as the Tigers did not allow Miami to penetrate their 35 and the Hurricanes did not gain another first down. Miami finished the game with just five first downs and 174 yards of total offense, yet won the game. The Clemson offense moved well, but a fumble at the Miami 18 and three Dooley interceptions inside the 20 kept Clemson off the scoreboard, as Miami handed the Tigers their first bowl loss in history.

in a bowl game. Clemson got the ball back after a punt, but on fourth down, defensive end Leo Martin blocked Hair's punt at the Clemson 32. Mallios converted twice on fourth down to keep the drive going, and he scored from Clemson claimed its first Atlantic Coast Conference championship in 1956 on the strength of a 4-0-1 league mark. The Tigers were 7-1-2 overall and were a surprise choice to participate in the 22nd Orange Bowl, as only three weeks before their selection, the Tigers had been shut out by Miami, 21-0, in the same stadium. Colorado, which was 7-2-1 and the Big-Seven runnerup, was chosen as Clemson's opponent.

After a scoreless first quarter, Colorado got on track with a seven-play, 75-yard drive. The Buffaloes' catalyst was a 26-yard run by Bob Stransky that moved the ball to the Clemson 23. Four plays later, John "The Beast" Bayuk scored from the two. Ellwin Indorf added the point after.

Clemson came out of the lockerroom and marched 69 yards in 15 plays to score on Joel Wells's three-yard run. After a punt, Clemson moved to the 29 on Bob Spooner's two runs. Three plays later, Wells ran 58 yards on a counter trap off the belly series for the Tigers' second score. Bussey's point after made the score 20-14 Colorado.

Clemson recovered the onside kick, but the Tigers were forced to punt. Colorado then fumbled at its 11 and Tommy Sease recovered. Spooner, who had been the workhorse on the first scoring drive, carried the ball in from the one, and with Bussey's third extra point, Clemson led for the first time at 21-20. Although leading, Bussey attempted a second onside kick. Colorado recovered and marched 53 yards in eight plays to go ahead for good on Bayuk's one-yard plunge. Indorf kicked the extra point and the Buffaloes led, 27-21. The two teams traded turnovers, and Colorado ran out the clock.

Frank Howard's threatened resignation during halftime inspired the comeback in the second half. "I told them I was going to resign if they didn't play better in the second half. I told them I didn't want to be associated with any team that played like that."

When Howard met Colorado Head Coach Dal Ward at midfield, Ward asked him what was the matter with his team.

Howard said "I just don't know."

Later, Howard explained that his team refused to block in the first half, but in the second half, they got down to business. He had words of praise for John Bayuk, Colorado's fullback, and said he was as good as any fullback that Clemson had faced.

South Carolina, who had been shut out by Clemson the previous two years, scored 20 second half points to take a 26-6 win over Frank Howard's 1958 team. The only other blemish on the ACC Champions' 8-2 regular season record was a 13-0 loss at Georgia Tech. For their efforts, the Tigers were invited to play the nation's number-one team, Louisiana State, in the 25th Sugar Bowl.

Louisiana State drove deep into Clemson territory three times in the first half, but two fumbles and a thwarted fake field goal killed the drives. Clemson could do no better, though, as none of its first six drives went past midfield.

Clemson moved to the Louisiana State 27 yard line on its first drive of the second half, but a fumble gave the ball back to the other set of Tigers. On Clemson's next possession, Louisiana State got the break it had been looking for. On fourth down, the ball slipped out of snapper Paul Snyder's hands and hit up-man Doug Cline in the leg and Duane Leopard recovered for Louisiana State at the Clemson 11.

Louisiana State picked up two yards on its first three tries, but on fourth down halfback Billy Cannon hit tight end Mickey Mangham in the corner of the endzone for the only score of the game. Cannon kicked the extra point and Louisiana State led 7-0.

Louisiana State took over on downs and ran out the clock.

In his usual relaxed way, Coach Frank Howard of Clemson said he was pleased with his team.

"Hell! I think we'd have beat them if that boy had held onto that little screen pass," Howard said. "I was going for those two points and beat them. I didn't think we would hold them to one touchdown, but I didn't think they would shut us out, either."

"Louisiana State has a good team, they rate the #1 spot in the nation. Cannon is quite a boy. Deserves his All-American rating."

"It was a wonderful victory. They're just as fine when you win 'em, 7-0 as 30-0. I'm very happy that we won," said Louisiana State Coach Paul Dietzel, who won the national championship at age 34.

"Clemson proved tougher than most people figured. But we knew we would have to play at our top peak to beat them. They were a good team."

Clemson had one last chance late in the fourth quarter. The Tigers started at their 17 and 17 plays later were on the Louisiana State 28, but Harvey White's fourth-down pass to George Usry was incomplete.

The 1959 season was one of firsts, lasts, and other milestones. Clemson won the last "Big Thursday" game with archrival South Carolina, 27-0, one of five opponents the Tigers would whitewash, the second-highest shutout total in a Clemson season. The 9-2 team was Clemson's third ACC Championship unit, and Frank Howard's last bowl team.

After the season-ending win over Furman, Clemson was invited to play TCU in the inaugural Bluebonnet Bowl, which would be the Tigers' second post-season appearance in the calendar year of 1959. The 23-7 win over the Horned Frogs was Clemson's 300th football victory.

Alternate quarterback Lowndes Shingler guided Clemson on a 12-play, 63-yard drive to the TCU five yard line, but the Tigers stalled. Lon Armstrong hit on a 22-yard field goal as the second quarter started, to put Clemson up, 3-0.

Not to be outdone, TCU second-stringer Donald George moved his team on a 12-play, 63-yard drive to the endzone. The Horned Frogs scored the go-ahead touchdown on a 19-yard halfback pass from Jack Reding to Harry Moreland.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, but Clemson did drive to the TCU 29 midway through the period. Harvey White's fourth-down pass to George Usry was just one yard short of the needed first down and TCU took over.

Clemson got pass-happy in the final 15 minutes and scored two touchdowns for a comfortable lead. With a third-and-18 situation at its own 32, White threw to Gary Barnes, who caught the ball at midfield and sprinted in for a score. After an interception, Shingler threw to Tommy King coming across the middle for a 23-yard touchdown, but Shingler's point after was wide, and Clemson led, 16-7.

Clemson returned to its running game for its final scoring drive late in the quarter. Shingler, Doug Daigneault, and Ron Scrudato moved the Tigers from their 37 to the TCU one and Scrudato ran off right tackle for six. Armstrong's kick put the game out of TCU's reach.

The win over the #7 Horned Frogs was the highest-ranked bowl win in Tiger history at the time and is still third-best all-time, trailing only the win over #4 Nebraska in the 1982 Orange Bowl and the win over #6 Tennessee in the 2004 Peach Bowl.

Clemson resurfaced in the national spotlight in 1977 after winning eight games and making its first bowl appearance in 18 years. First-year coach Charley Pell guided his team to a 7-6 win at Georgia, a near-upset of eventual National Champion Notre Dame at home, and came within an extra point of claiming the ACC Championship. After Jerry Butler's twisting, diving catch in the end zone beat South Carolina, Clemson accepted the invitation to play defending National Champion Pittsburgh in the 33rd annual Gator Bowl.

Clemson won the opening coin toss, but that was to be the only thing the Tigers would win that night as the Matt Cavanaugh-led Panthers scored six of the 12 times they had the ball, set seven Gator Bowl records, and handed the Tigers one of their 25 worst defeats in history with a 34-3 score.

Cavanaugh threw four touchdown passes (three to fullback Elliott Walker), passed for a Clemson opponent record 387 yards and accounted for 402 yards in total offense. Pitt set a Gator Bowl team record for passing yards and first downs, while Cavanaugh set the individual mark for passing yardage. If that was not enough, the Pittsburgh defense stymied the Clemson offense all night by keeping Steve Fuller & Company bottled up or causing turnovers when the Tigers' offense did get on track.

Pittsburgh was leading 17-0 when the Tigers began their only scoring drive early in the second quarter. Fuller mixed passes to Anthony King and Butler with runs by Ken Callicutt to move to the Pittsburgh 32. The drive bogged down and Obed Ariri hit on a 49-yard field goal which set the Gator Bowl record for distance.

Fuller led Clemson on offense with 192 yards. He had been named ACC Player-of-the-Year as a junior. Randy Scott (13), Mark Heniford (13), and Bubba Brown led the Tiger defense with double-figure tackle totals.

Although the Tigers were out-classed by the Panthers, the 1977 appearance in the Gator Bowl was the start of a new era of football pride for Clemson.

The 1978 Clemson team was notable for many reasons, and not the least of which was a 17-15 win over Ohio State in the Gator Bowl. The team won 11 games (eight by convincing margins), had the nation's longest winning streak after the bowl game, changed head coaches 19 days before the bowl, and ended the coaching career of Woody Hayes.

The first quarter of new Clemson head coach Danny Ford's first game was scoreless.

The second quarter was unusual in that there were four possessions in the stanza and each team scored twice. Ohio State drove to the Clemson nine on the passing of Art Schlichter, but the Buckeyes had to settle for Bob Atha's 27-yard field goal.

Quarterback Steve Fuller engineered an impressive 80-yard, 15-play drive after the kickoff. Staying mostly on the ground, Fuller ran around left end from four yards out to give Clemson the lead.

Schlichter duplicated Fuller's feat nine plays later, but Clemson right end Steve Gibbs blocked Vlade Janakiewski's extra point try.

Clemson got the ball back with 1:15 remaining in the quarter and Fuller passed his way to the Buckeye 30. With only five seconds left, Ariri hit a 47-yard field goal that gave the Tigers a 10-9 lead at halftime.

Clemson scored the only points of the third quarter as the running combination of Fuller, Marvin Sims, and Warren Ratchford ground out 83 yards in 18 plays. Cliff Austin went the final yard for the score, and Ariri's conversion gave Clemson a 17-9 cushion.

With 8:11 left in the game, Schlichter scored his second touchdown to bring Ohio State within two points. Jim Stuckey tackled Schlichter on a sweep to prevent the two-point play, and Clemson led 17-15.

Ohio State mounted one final drive. Faced with third-and-five at the Clemson 24, an interception by second-team middle guard Charlie Bauman (the only theft of his four-year career) killed the drive. Bauman was forced out-of-bounds on the Ohio State sideline, and Buckeye coach Woody Hayes swung at the Clemson player. Consecutive unsportsmanlike conduct penalties gave Clemson excellent field position, and Fuller was able to run out the clock, giving Clemson its first win over a Big Ten team.

Bubba Brown led the Clemson defense with 22 tackles, still a school record for tackles in a bowl game. Jim Stuckey added 10 tackles.

Clemson made its third consecutive bowl appearance in 1979 after an 8-3 season. The year included a 19-10 win over Gator Bowl-bound North Carolina and a dramatic, come-from-behind 16-10 victory at Notre Dame. The 1979 season was also Danny Ford's first full campaign as head coach.

The Tigers got on the board first with an eight-play, 66-yard drive highlighted by Billy Lott's 27-yard pass to Lester Brown. Brown scored two plays later on a one-yard dive over the middle and Obed Ariri's point after made the score 7-0 midway through the first period.

Baylor took the lead on two second-quarter touchdown passes from Mike Brannon to Bo Taylor and Robert Holt. Robert Bledsoe converted after both scores and the Southwest Conference representatives led 14-7 at intermission.

Clemson took the second half kickoff and a combination of runs by Lott, Brown, and Tracy Perry took the Tigers to the Baylor 22. The drive stalled there and Ariri's 40-yard field goal narrowed the margin to 14-10.

Quarterback Mickey Elam led Baylor on a 64-yard field goal drive after the kickoff, and he later threw a seven-yard touchdown to Raymond Cockrell to push the Bears' lead to 24-10.

Mike Singletary (future All-Pro with the Chicago Bears), led the Baylor defense with 20 tackles. He was a major reason Clemson gained a season low 67 yards rushing in 51 attempts.

Andy Headen began Clemson's furious comeback with a blocked punt that was recovered by James Robinson at the Baylor one. Chuck McSwain scored with 20 seconds left in the game and Lott passed to Jeff McCall for the two-point conversion. Headen recovered the ensuing onside kick, and Lott completed a 30-yard pass to Perry Tuttle to move the Tigers to the Baylor 33. An interception killed the winning touchdown drive, however, and Baylor ran out the remaining seconds for the win.

After 86 years of playing football, Clemson claimed its first National Championship with a 22-15 win over perennial Big Eight power Nebraska in the 48th Orange Bowl. After a 13-3 win over 1980 National Champion Georgia at home, the Tigers worked their way to the number-one ranking in both wire service polls by season's end. The win over the Cornhuskers gave Clemson the national title and its third perfect season in history.

Nebraska took the kickoff, but three plays later, Tiger middle guard William Devane recovered a Mark Mauer fumble at the Nebraska 33. Quarterback Homer Jordan drove Clemson to the Nebraska 24 before the drive stalled, and Donald Igwebuikie drilled a 41-yard field goal to put the ACC Champions up, 3-0.

Nebraska came right back, however, as the Big Eight title holder drove 69 yards in eight plays to score on a 25-yard halfback pass from Mike Rozier to Anthony Steels. Kevin Seibel's extra point gave Nebraska the lead at 7-3 with 6:43 to go in the first quarter.

After an exchange of punts, the Clemson offense moved from the Nebraska 42 yard line to the 21 to set up Igwebuikie's second field goal. The 37-yard boot narrowed the score to 7-6.

A second-quarter Phil Bates fumble gave Clemson the ball at the Nebraska 27, and the running combination of Jordan, Kevin Mack, and Cliff Austin moved the ball to the Cornhusker two. Austin, who had been stuck in the hotel elevator for two hours earlier in the day, scampered in for the score that gave Clemson a lead it would not relinquish.

On its second possession of the second half, Clemson drove 75 yards in 12 plays to score its final touchdown of the night, a 13-yard pass from Jordan to All-American receiver Perry Tuttle in the corner of the end zone. It was Tuttle's eighth touchdown grab of the season, which set a school record. Bob Paulling's extra point put the Tigers ahead, 19-7.

After Billy Davis's 47-yard punt return, Jordan moved the Tigers to the Nebraska 20, where Igwebuikie kicked a 36-yard field goal, his third of the evening, to put Clemson ahead 22-7 with two-and-a-half minutes left in the third stanza.

Nebraska was down but not out, though. After a near-interception by Johnny Rembert, Mauer engineered an eight-play, 69-yard drive that was capped by a 26-yard run by Roger Craig. After a penalty, Craig ran in the two-point conversion from eight yards out to close the gap to 22-15 with nine minutes to play.

The Clemson defense shut down the Big Red on their final extended drive, then the offense held on to the ball for nearly five-and-a-half minutes to run down the clock to six seconds. Andy Headen deflected Mauer's desperation pass to preserve the win and the championship for Clemson.

Jeff Davis led the Tiger defense with 14 tackles in his final game. He also recovered a fumble, giving him a school-record eight for his career. Bill Smith added a career-high 10 tackles from his defensive end position.

Clemson met a Big Ten school for only the second time in history when it faced Minnesota in the Independence Bowl. It was an interesting matchup of teams that enjoyed moving the ball on the ground, as both clubs gained over 200 rushing yards in the contest. The team with the higher rushing total prevailed, a fact that was easily predictable, as the Gophers churned out 257 yards rushing in a 20-13 Minnesota win.

Minnesota was coached by John Gutekunst, who had taken over for Lou Holtz at the end of the regular season. Holtz had resigned in December to become head coach at Notre Dame.

Clemson held a 13-10 lead heading into the fourth quarter, but for the fifth time in the last 13 games the Tigers could not hold the fourth-period lead. Valdez Baylor scored on a one-yard run with 4:56 left to give Minnesota a final ledger of 7-5. Clemson mounted a final drive in the last few minutes and advanced to the Minnesota 31, but a fourth-down pass for Ray Williams was overthrown.

Ricky Foggie, a native of South Carolina, led the Golden Gophers with 183 yards of total offense.

Kenny Flowers had another outstanding day for the Tigers with a career high 148 yards, including a 32-yard run. It was his seventh 100-yard day of the year, his sixth century game in the last seven contests.

Ray Williams caught five passes for 58 yards, while Terrance Roulhac had 63 yards in receptions and 90 yards in kickoff returns. Another wide receiver, Keith Jennings, scored Clemson's only touchdown when he caught a three-yard pass from running back Stacey Driver in the third period.

Henry Walls led Clemson defensively with 13 tackles, while A.J. Johnson was outstanding in the secondary with seven stops. Dwayne Meadows established a career high with 13 stops from his defensive line position.

Christmas came two days late for the Tigers as they won their first bowl since the 1982 Orange Bowl. After a brilliant first half display of offense and defense, Clemson managed to hold off a second-half Stanford rally and go on to defeat the 17th-ranked Cardinal, 27-21. Before a Gator Bowl crowd of 80,104, the Tigers scored 27 unanswered points in the first half and appeared to be on the way to a rout. But the second half was a different ball game as Stanford came out strong and put up 21 unanswered points of its own.

Gator Bowl MVP Rodney Williams completed 8-11 passes in the first half, but it was his execution of the option that helped Clemson gain a 27-0 halftime lead. After punting on their first possession, the Tigers scored on their next five. With the score 17-0 in the second quarter, Reggie Harris knocked the ball loose on a Stanford kickoff return and the Tigers recovered on Stanford's 16-yard line. Two plays later, Ray Williams took a reverse in for a 14-yard touchdown, his first of the season. David Treadwell added his longest field goal of the year (46) on Clemson's next possession, putting the Tigers up 27-0 at the intermission.

But the Cardinal came back from halftime a different team. Kodak All-American tailback Brad Muster rushed for a touchdown and caught two scoring passes while the Clemson offense came to a standstill. With 1:43 left to play run the clock out and the Tigers emerged victorious.

Tailbacks Terrence Flagler and Kenny Flowers combined for 149 yards. Sophomore Ricardo Hooper led the receiving corps with two catches for 44 yards. Terrance Roulhac and Flagler each had three catches with 22 and 23 yards, respectively. Rodney Williams rushed 16 times for 18 yards and one touchdown.

Defensively, the Tigers were led by linebacker Henry Carter who recorded a career-high 13 tackles. Gene Beasley added seven tackles and broke up two passes. The game also marked Michael Dean Perry's offensive debut, as he was put in as a blocking back on a goal-line situation in the first half.

in the game Clemson was forced to punt to the Cardinal with only a touchdown's lead. But the Tiger defense rose to the occasion, as Stanford gained only six yards on the next four downs. The offense fell on the ball to Everything went the Tigers way in sunny Florida as Clemson soundly defeated Joe Paterno's Penn State team by the score of 35-10. It is still the largest margin of defeat for a Joe Paterno-coached football team. Rodney Williams was selected the Citrus Bowl's Most Valuable Player as he led the Tigers in a brilliant air attack that took the Nittany Lions by complete surprise, and complemented it with a solid ground game.

The win was Danny Ford's fourth bowl victory in only nine seasons as Clemson's head coach. It also marked Rodney Williams' second bowl victory in his three-year playing career at Clemson and the second consecutive year that he was named the MVP of a postseason bowl. In 1986, Williams won the honor as the Tigers defeated Stanford in the Gator Bowl.

Williams, who was also named the Offensive Player-of-the-Game, completed 14 of 24 passes for 214 yards. His primary target was wide receiver Keith Jennings, who hauled in seven passes for 110 yards, his best career performance. Wideout Gary Cooper also added four receptions for 56 yards against Penn State.

The Tigers rushed for 285 yards against Penn State to go with the 214 yards passing. It was the first bowl game in which Clemson had at least 200 yards passing and 200 yards rushing.

Terry Allen was the leading rusher with 105 yards and one touchdown. Fullback Tracy Johnson ran for 88 yards and three touchdowns. Joe Henderson added 54 yards on the ground and another touchdown.

Defensively, Clemson was led by cornerback James Lott's eight tackles. Safety Richard Smith also had seven tackles and one pass broken up. Strong safety Gene Beasley and linebacker Doug Brewster both had six tackles.

Linebacker Dorian Marable was selected the Citrus Bowl's Defensive Player-of-the-Game with his five tackles, including one for a loss. He also intercepted a pass in the endzone and returned it 46 yards in the third quarter.

The Tigers rang in the New Year in fine fashion with a 13-6 victory over the Oklahoma Sooners, moving into the top-10 of the final AP poll for the first time since 1982 with a #9 ranking. The victory also gave Danny Ford a victory over the winningest active coach in Division I, Barry Switzer. Ford defeated the top-three winningest active coaches the decade, with wins over Switzer, Tom Osborne (Nebraska), and Joe Paterno (Penn State).

Although the Tigers faced a wishbone offense for the first time since Ford became head coach, the Clemson defense came through with flying colors, holding the Sooners to only 116 yards, and no touchdowns on the ground.

The game was a defensive struggle, as the two teams failed to combine for 500 yards of total offense. The first five series of the first quarter ended in punts for both teams. Late in the period, the Sooners drove down to the Clemson one-yardline, and the Tigers defense faced a first-and-goal situation. Outside linebacker Levon Kirkland stopped the ballcarrier for no gain on first down. On second down Jesse Hatcher sacked Jamelle Holieway at the 19. After an incomplete pass, the Sooners were forced to settle for a field goal.

Doug Brewster intercepted a pass early in the second quarter to set up the Tigers' first score, a 20-yard field goal by Chris Gardocki. With time running out in the first half, Gardocki put the Tigers up with another kick, this time a 46-yarder.

A fumble in the third quarter gave the Sooners the opportunity to take the lead, but the Tiger defense held and R.D. Lashar hit again from 30 yards. The Tigers responded on the next series, driving 80 yards in 15 plays for the game's only touchdown, as Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run. Allen, the game's Most Valuable Player, rushed for 25 yards and caught two passes for 17 yards on the drive.

Defensive MVP Jesse Hatcher caused and recovered a fumble on the Sooners' next drive, but the Sooners would have one more opportunity to score. After a punt, Oklahoma drove from its own 20 to the Clemson 14, as Holieway put the Tiger secondary to the test by putting the ball in the air. On the last play of the game, freshman Dexter Davis knocked down a pass in the endzone to seal the Tiger victory.

Terry Allen was named MVP. Allen rushed for only 53 yards, his season low, but scored the game's only touchdown and caught four passes for 47 yards to lead all Tiger receivers.

The Tigers closed out the 1989 season with a stylish victory over West Virginia and Heisman Trophy finalist Major Harris, as a dominant Clemson defense held the high-powered Mountaineer offense to only 237 yards in total offense. The win gave Clemson's senior class the ACC record for victories as they became the first class in conference history to record 38 wins and the first Clemson team ever to win four straight bowl games.

West Virginia quarterback Major Harris came into the game ranked eighth nationally in total offense and ninth in passing efficiency but the Clemson defense, led by outside linebacker Levon Kirkland, enabled the shifty Harris to gain only 17 yards on the ground and 119 yards in the air on an 11-21 passing effort. Kirkland was named MVP for his efforts, as he had nine tackles, a five-yard sack, caused a key fumble, broke up a Mountaineer pass, and recorded three quarterback pressures.

The fourth quarter was all Clemson, as the Tigers moved the ball 47 yards on the ground to set up a four-yard Joe Henderson touchdown. Vince Taylor recovered a second Harris fumble and after a Clemson punt, freshman defensive tackle Chester McGlockton, the ACC sack leader, knocked the ball loose from Harris once again and fell on for a 34-yard gain to set up a 24-yard Chris Gardocki field goal, putting the final score at 27-7.

Senior tailback Joe Henderson led the Tigers in rushing with 92 yards on 22 carries and one touchdown, while Chris Morocco, who was shaken up late in the game, gained 65 yards on the ground on 11 carries. Rodney Fletcher was the leading receiver as he pulled down three catches for 66 yards.

Chris Gardocki kept the Tigers in good field position, as he had a 46-yard average on four punts, including a long kick of 63.

Defensively, linebacker Doug Brewster led the team in tackles with 10, followed by Kirkland's nine and strong safety Arlington Nunn and inside linebacker Ed McDaniel, who had seven stops each.

After a separation of 22 years, two coaches found themselves once again on the same football field. This time, they were on opposite sidelines. Ken Hatfield and John Mackovic, who had been graduate assistants together at Army in the 1960's, were reunited in the 1991 Hall of Fame Bowl.

The Clemson defense dominated the line by holding Illinois to 247 yards, 150 yards under their season average. The Clemson offense surprised the Illini defense with an unexpected aerial assault. Tiger quarterback and game MVP DeChane Cameron, who was less than a 50 percent passer in the regular season, completed 14 of 19 passes for a Hall of Fame Bowl record 73 percent.

Cameron's passing yardage totalled 141 yards and he completed TD passes to Doug Thomas and Howard Hall. It was the first TD reception for both players in their respective careers. Thomas caught five passes on the day for 57 yards, career highs for both categories for the senior in his last game.

Clemson took its opening possession 71 yards to the Illinois two where Chris Gardocki tapped in any easy three. After Illinois fumbled on its first offensive play of the game, Clemson scored a touchdown with a 14-yard pass from Cameron to Thomas. Clemson had not scored a passing touchdown in any of its four previous bowl victories.

then put the contest out of reach just three plays later when Arlington Nunn scored on a 34-yard interception return. It was the senior's third interception returned for a TD in 1990, a Clemson record.

The Tiger defense continued to hold Illinois throughout the remainder of the game. John Johnson led the Tiger pass defense, as he had two sacks to lead a point-prevention unit that had six sacks on the day. Illinois reached the Clemson eight-yard line in the fourth quarter, but the Tiger defense forced a fumble and Ed McDaniel picked up the ball. Illinois had the ball in Tiger territory just three times.

The Tiger defense earned its third shutout of the year. It was the first shutout at a Hall of Fame Bowl and Clemson's first bowl shutout in 17 bowls. The 30-0 triumph was a Tiger record for victory margin in a bowl game.

In the second quarter, the Tigers would score two more touchdowns. The first was the result of a 17-yard Cameron pass to fullback Howard Hall. It was just the third TD pass to a Clemson fullback in the last 18 years. Clemson Clemson's bowl game victory streak ended at five as the Tigers left the state of Florida with their first bowl loss since 1985, and their worst defeat since 1986, when #14th California defeated #13 Clemson 37-13 in the Florida Citrus Bowl.

For the first time since the 1988 season, the Clemson defense, which led the nation in rushing defense in 1991, allowed an opposing running back to rush for over 100 yards, as California's Russell White crossed the century mark with 103 yards.

The Golden Bears scored early and often in the first half, taking the opening kickoff 76 yards for a touchdown and adding a 31-yard field goal on their third possession. Clemson was unable to gain a first down after the ensuing kickoff and was forced to punt. Although Chuck Lynch punted 49 yards, Brian Treggs eluded the Tiger special forces unit and went the distance for a 72-yard touchdown.

Treggs had 124 punt return yards, most ever against Clemson in a bowl game and one of the top opponent performances in any game.

Clemson got on the board for the first time with time running out in the first quarter as Nelson Welch connected broke loose for a 62-yard touchdown. That play marked the longest run from scrimmage for a Tiger quarterback in 13 years, but also marked the only touchdown that Clemson scored that afternoon.

The only score for Clemson in the second half was a 36-yard field goal by Welch in the third period.

The Tiger defense managed to hold California scoreless in the fourth quarter, but Clemson could not put up any points, as it turned the ball over three times on interceptions and once more on downs.

Two Tigers who were playing in their last game in a Clemson uniform were named team Most Valuable Players in the loss. Defensive tackle Chester McGlockton, who had six tackles for the game, including three tackles for loss and one-and-a-half sacks, was named the Tigers' defensive MVP, while quarterback DeChane Cameron was named Clemson's Most Valuable Offensive Performer, after he scored Clemson's only touchdown and had 189 yards in total offense.

on a 32-yard field goal on a drive highlighted by a 43-yard run by fullback Rudy Harris.

The highlight of the game for the Tigers came with just under five minutes remaining in the first half, as DeChane Cameron

Heading into the Peach Bowl with Kentucky, Clemson owned the seventh-best bowl winning percentage (61.1) in college football history. The Tigers upped that percentage in an exciting way, with a 14-13 win over Kentucky. Tommy West became the first coach in NCAA history to win his first game for a school in a bowl game without serving as a coach in that program during the regular season.

A tandem of running backs who hailed from Pensacola, FL led the Clemson rushing attack, as starting tailback Rodney Blunt rushed for a season-high 58 yards on 15 carries to lead the team. But, it was red-shirt freshman Emory Smith who was named the Tigers' Offensive MVP, as he rambled for 45 yards from his fullback position, including a two-yard touchdown run.

After taking over at its own two, quarterback Dexter McCleon engineered a 98-yard scoring drive that culminated in a one-yard run by Emory Smith.

The Wildcats drove back down the field on their next possession, this time reaching the Clemson one again, where they decided to go for it on fourth down. The Clemson defense held once again, as defensive tackle Brentson Buckner stopped the ball carrier for no gain. Buckner was named Defensive MVP after tallying a dozen tackles, including three tackles for loss. Buckner became just the fourth Tiger defensive lineman in the last eight years to record at least a dozen tackles in a game.

The Tigers were forced to punt after taking over at the one and Kentucky got on the scoreboard with a 17-yard field goal by Nicky Nickles. The score heading into the half stood at 7-3.

Neither squad scored in the third quarter, and barely into the fourth period, Kentucky took the lead with a 46-yard touchdown drive. After an interception, the Wildcats upped their lead to 13-7 on a 43 yard scoring drive, culminating in another field goal.

With time running down in the fourth quarter, quarterback Patrick Sapp came off the bench. The two teams exchanged punts before the Tigers got the ball at their own 18 with 3:50 left. On the first play of the drive, Sapp threw a screen to Emory Smith for 57 yards. With under a minute left, Kentucky linebacker Marty Moore intercepted Sapp's pass. But, on the return, Stacy Seegars jarred the ball loose and Brent LeJeune recovered. With 20 seconds left, Sapp connected with Terry Smith on a 21-yard score and Nelson Welch kicked the PAT for the win.

Clemson entered the 1996 Gator Bowl fresh off of five consecutive victories, including an emotional 38-17 win over arch-rival South Carolina. The Tigers had won six consecutive games away from Death Valley, but the streak ended there at the hands of Syracuse. The Orangemen handed Clemson its worst bowl defeat in its 20-game bowl history, 41-0.

In front of a rain-soaked crowd of mostly Tiger fans, freshman quarterback and future NFL star Donovan McNabb ran, passed and beat the Tiger defense. McNabb, the MVP of the Gator Bowl, was unstoppable, as he threw three touchdown passes and ran for another. He completed 13 of 23 passes for 309 yards. Wide receiver Marvin Harrison was on the other end of many McNabb passes as he grabbed seven for 173 yards.

Malcolm Thomas scored less than two minutes into the game on a one-yard run. On its next possession, McNabb led a 12-play, 62-yard drive that culminated in a McNabb five-yard keeper for six.

In the second quarter, the Orangemen defense thwarted Clemson's best scoring chance of the afternoon. After the Tigers had gone 53 yards down the field on 11 plays to Syracuse's six-yard-line, Clemson faced a crucial fourth-and-two although Sapp did register a sack for a nine-yard loss. The Tigers, who entered the game with the nation's fourth best rushing attack could only manage 90 yards on 34 attempts. The Orangemen held Raymond Priestler, the ACC's leading rusher, to just 36 yards on 15 carries.

Syracuse added two more touchdowns in the third quarter to put the game well out of reach. After a 57-yard pass to Sir Mawn Wilson, Thomas ran two yards to the right for his second touchdown of the afternoon. Thomas rushed for 71 yards on 14 carries. Each team traded prodigious third quarter punts, including a 73-yard effort by Sean Reali. The two bright spots for Clemson were punter Chris McNally, who averaged 49.3 yards on six punts, and Brian Dawkins, who had a team-high 10 tackles. The Orangemen had their second one-play drive when McNabb connected with Harrison for a 56-yard score.

situation. Clemson called a play-action pass that was incomplete, ending the drive on downs.

The homecoming for Jacksonville natives and childhood teammates Brian Dawkins and Patrick Sapp was bitter-sweet, Raymond Priestler set a Clemson Bowl record for rushing yardage with 151 yards gained during the 1996 Peach Bowl. On the defensive side of the ball, defensive lineman Trevor Pryce had three tackles for loss and one sack in addition to a caused fumble. Even with these fine accomplishments, Clemson still fell to the Louisiana State Tigers by a three-point margin, 10-7 at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, GA.

Nealon Greene opened the scoring for Clemson on a three-yard run for a touchdown.

In addition to Priestler's outstanding game, contributions to the running attack were also made by Emory Smith, who had nine carries for 40 yards. Smith, brother of NFL star Emmitt Smith, was playing in his second Peach Bowl, as he was vital in Clemson's victory over Kentucky in the 1993 Peach Bowl.

Clemson's sole touchdown drive was 1:29 minutes long and consisted of only three runs. The outstanding field position was achieved on a fumble recovery by Harold Means following a sack and caused fumble by Trevor Pryce.

Defensively, Clemson had five players contribute to a combined nine tackles for losses. These tackles for losses combined for a total loss of fifty-three yards of Louisiana State's offense.

State scored again during this quarter, with a 22-yard field goal by Richey to take the lead for good. Neither team scored in the second half, as both defenses dominated.

Clemson got the ball back with 2:29 remaining, but a 52-yard field goal attempt by Matt Padgett with 1:02 remaining in the game was blocked by Adam Roman and Louisiana State hung on for its second bowl victory over Clemson. The SEC Tigers also defeated Clemson 7-0 in the 1959 Sugar Bowl.

Time of possession was fairly even throughout the game, as Louisiana State led with 30:15 minutes versus Clemson's 29:45 minutes. Not only was time of possession even in this game, but also the total net yards gained (Clemson 258 - Louisiana State 287) and the average gain per play (4.2-4.5) were close as well.

Louisiana State scored its only touchdown of the game during the second quarter when Kevin Faulk ran three yards to a touchdown. The extra point by Richey was good and the game was tied 7-7. Louisiana

Behind the strength of the Auburn defense, Dameyune Craig was able to rally his offense in the fourth quarter enroute to a come from behind 21-17 victory over the Clemson Tigers at the Georgia Dome. Auburn's offense managed to score 15 points on three consecutive scoring drives to overcome an 11-point deficit in the fourth quarter.

Clemson got on the board midway through the second quarter with the help of the first of many great special teams plays. Jaret Holmes' punt was blocked by Rod Gardner and returned 18 yards by Chad Speck for a touchdown.

Auburn would answer the Clemson scoring strike on its very next drive. Offensive MVP Dameyune Craig led Auburn on a seven-play, 67-yard drive, that ended when Jaret Holmes converted on his second field goal.

With 5:18 left in the third quarter, Clemson's special teams stepped up big again when Rahim Abdullah blocked Holmes' punt and Mal Lawyer recovered the ball on the two. From there, Clemson's Terry Witherspoon ran the ball in from two yards out on first and goal to give the Tigers a 14-6 lead.

Despite failing to convert the two-point conversion, Craig's run was a turning point for the Auburn offense and reduced Clemson's lead to 17-12.

Clemson was forced to punt on its next possession, giving the ball back to an Auburn offense that was finally clicking. Craig and his Tigers drove 49 yards in two minutes and 22 seconds, resulting in a Rusty Williams 7-yard touchdown run.

Following an interception, Auburn drove down to the Clemson five and Holmes converted on a 22-yard field goal, giving the Auburn Tigers a 21-17 lead. After Clemson lost the ball on downs, Auburn ran the remaining 2:30 off the clock.

Wayne Madkin ran for a touchdown and threw for another in the fourth quarter to lead #15 Mississippi State to a 17-7 win in the Peach Bowl and a record crowd of 73,315. Clemson outgained the Bulldogs 391-265, but many Tiger drives stalled in Bulldog territory, as Mississippi State's defense, tops in the nation in yards allowed per game, thwarted the Tigers and forced six turnovers.

Despite the loss, Clemson's defense played one of its best games of the year, holding the Bulldogs (10-2) to just 3.7 yards per play. The defense also began many drives after Tiger turnovers in Clemson's own territory.

Clemson was led on offense by Brian Wofford, who had six catches for a team-season-high 147 yards, including four of 20 yards or more. Brandon Streeter threw for 301 yards on 24-50 passing. Freshman Bernard Rambert, who played most of the game after starting tailback Travis Zachery left the game early in the first quarter with a dislocated elbow, had 70 yards rushing on 18 carries.

Clemson looked to be in business when Streeter connected with Rod Gardner, who had seven catches for 75 yards, for 37 yards on the game's first play. But Fred Smoot intercepted Streeter's fourth-down pass. Clemson had another golden opportunity later in the opening quarter. Thanks in part to Wofford's 32-yard catch and run, Clemson drove 64 yards in 15 plays before Tony Lazzara's 25-yard field goal was blocked and returned into Tiger territory. The Clemson defense continually came up with stands. The teams went into halftime 0-0, the first scoreless tie at halftime for Clemson since 1988. Scott Westerfield put the Bulldogs ahead 3-0 on the opening drive of the second half. After two screen passes that netted a total of 30 yards, Westerfield split the uprights from 39 yards.

The Bulldogs reached the endzone for the first time on their first possession of the fourth quarter. Madkin out-ran Keith Adams for a two-yard score. Their drive was twice extended on third-down plays in the red-zone by pass interference calls.

Clemson responded with an eight-play, 70-yard drive capped by Streeter's one-yard plunge to make the score 10-7. But Mississippi State came right back with a clinching touchdown-scoring drive, capped by Dontae Walker's 15-yard catch on a screen pass. Madkin's 21-yard completion to Matt Butler on third down was the critical play of the drive.

Michael Vick rebounded from an ankle-injury to lead Virginia Tech to a victory in his final college game, a 41-20 win. The quarterback finished with two touchdowns while completing 10 of 18 passes for 205 yards. The contest was a battle of mobile quarterbacks, as Clemson's Woodrow Dantzler gained 261 yards of total offense for the afternoon.

The Hokies capitalized on early costly Tiger mistakes. The uncharacteristic play began on the first drive when snapper Henry Owen bounced his delivery to punter Jaime Somaini, who was tackled for an eight-yard loss by Lee Suggs. Tech scored on its first offensive play of the game when Vick threw to Jarrett Ferguson on a 23-yard touchdown play.

Later in the quarter, Terry Jolly jumped off-side to preserve an 11-play, 59-yard drive that ended in a six-yard touchdown run for Vick.

Clemson got back into the game, but at a heavy cost. Dantzler found Travis Zachery for a 23-yard touchdown early in the second quarter. However, Zachery's missed the rest of the game due to a broken foot that occurred as the tailback leaped into the endzone. On the play, Zachery also snapped Lester Brown's single-season Clemson record of 17 touchdowns in a season.

was as close as Clemson could get. Suggs scored his first touchdown of the day on a three-yard rush on the next possession to give the Hokies a 21-10 lead.

Hopes of a second-half rally were shattered when Vick found Andre Davis for a 55-yard touchdown on the first drive of the second half. Willie Simmons relieved Dantzler in the final quarter. On his first possession, Simmons led the offense on an 11-play, 71-yard drive that ended in a 23-yard touchdown pass to Rod Gardner. With seven catches, Gardner surpassed Terry Smith's Clemson record for career receptions, finishing his career with 166.

Both quarterbacks shined in the much-anticipated match-up between Vick and Dantzler, although the Hokie quarterback left with both a Gator Bowl and a MVP trophy. Vick had the advantage in the passing game, his numbers slightly besting Dantzler's 15-32 for 180 yards.

Two possessions later, Keith Adams sacked Vick for 18 yards, forcing a fumble that Terry Bryant recovered on the Hokie 13. Clemson had to settle for an Aaron Hunt field goal, bringing the Tigers to within 14-10. But, that Clemson concluded its 2001 season with a 49-24 win over Louisiana Tech in the Humanitarian Bowl at Boise, ID. The Tigers managed to win despite snowy conditions and freezing temperatures that set records for a Tiger football game.

Clemson won by putting together one of its best all-around performances of the season. The offense racked up 548 yards of total offense and set a school record for most touchdown passes in a game with five. The Tigers scored four touchdowns in the third quarter, setting a new team record for most points scored in one quarter in a bowl game. Four touchdowns were scored by freshmen, marking the first time in school history that happened. The defense held the Bulldogs to just 49 total yards rushing while intercepting three passes and totaling six sacks.

After falling behind 10-7, Clemson took the lead 14-10 with 6:54 remaining before halftime when quarterback Woodrow Dantzler connected with Roscoe Crosby on a 53-yard touchdown reception. Dantzler helped extend the lead on the first drive of the second half by finding Ben Hall in the end zone and igniting the record-setting third quarter scoring effort. Dantzler recorded his third touchdown pass of the game two minutes later when he hooked up with Bernard Rambert for a 62-yard score.

on the Bulldogs' first play of the ensuing drive, and Airese Currie's 19-yard fumble-rookie play less than two minutes later marked the fourth touchdown of the quarter and gave Clemson a 42-10 lead.

Backup quarterback Willie Simmons entered the game in the final period and helped contribute to Clemson's final score of the game, completing his only pass of the contest to Derrick Hamilton for a 57-yard touchdown with just over nine minutes remaining. Despite two late scores by Louisiana Tech, the Tigers' impressive team effort left fans excited about the potential of the 2002 campaign.

Dantzler ended his career with a fitting performance. He completed 15-23 passes for 218 yards, and his four touchdown passes tied his own team record. Rambert posted 101 rushing yards and a touchdown on 16 carries. Center Kyle Young was named to Sports Illustrated's All-Bowl team, as he had 18 knockdown blocks in the contest.

Following an interception by Brian Mance, the offense capitalized seven plays later when Rambert scampered down the left sideline for 21 yards and a score. Charles Hafley intercepted Luke McCown's pass

Texas Tech defeated Clemson 55-15 in the 2003 Mazda Tangerine Bowl at Florida Citrus Bowl Stadium in Orlando, FL. Making their fourth consecutive bowl appearance, the Tigers were unable to contain Kliff Kingsbury, who threw for 375 yards and three touchdowns. Earning game MVP honors, he completed 32-43 passes and finished the season with 5,017 passing yards. Although Kingsbury left the game in the third quarter with a leg injury, he returned to play in the final quarter and became just the third player in Division I-A history to eclipse the 5,000-yard passing mark in a season.

Charlie Whitehurst, who completed 20 of his 48 passes for 263 yards, led Clemson. His favorite target was Kevin Youngblood, who had a game-high 134 yards receiving on seven catches.

Kingsbury established the tone for the Red Raider offense by completing six of his first eight passes and leading the Red Raiders to a 29-yard field goal. Less than six minutes later, Kingsbury's 46-yard touchdown pass to Nehemiah Glover gave the Red Raiders a 10-0 lead. The onslaught continued in the first quarter when Kingsbury connected with Mickey Peters on a 19-yard touchdown pass that gave Texas Tech a 17-0 lead entering the second quarter.

punt that resulted in a safety when the ball went through the end zone.

Vincent Meeks intercepted Whitehurst at the goal-line. Three quick completions moved the Texas Tech offense into field-goal range, and Robert Treece's successful 40-yard attempt as time expired gave Texas Tech a 34-2 advantage at halftime.

Clemson's opening drive of the second half resulted in the team's first offensive score, when Whitehurst connected with tight end Ben Hall on a 10-yard touchdown pass. Kingsbury left the game on the next possession after Khaleed Vaughn rolled over his leg; B.J. Symons replaced Kingsbury and guided the Red Raiders to a score on his opening drive. Symons' two-yard touchdown pass to Carlos Francis made the score 41-9. Chad Jasmin's two-yard scamper with 12:29 remaining in regulation signaled the Tigers' final score of the contest.

Taurean Henderson's 10-yard run gave the Red Raiders a 24-0 lead with 12:09 remaining in the first half. Midway through the second quarter, Clemson finally mustered some points when Tye Hill blocked a Clemson's impressive finish to the regular season carried over into the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, as the Tigers upset #6 Tennessee by a score of 27-14. The win gave Clemson two victories over top-10 teams for the first time since the 1981 National Championship season, and propelled the Tigers to a #22 ranking in both final polls.

Clemson received the ball to start the game, and the offense responded with a quick start. Charlie Whitehurst found Derrick Hamilton for 26 yards and Kevin Youngblood for 35 more to move into scoring position. On first-and-goal, Whitehurst led an option to the short side of the field. Duane Coleman took the pitch and leaped over a would-be tackler. He got in for an eight-yard score.

Tennessee was forced to punt on its second possession, as Clausen was sacked by Justin Miller (first of his career) and then had a pass tipped at the line by Eric Coleman. All-America punter Dustin Colquitt booted a 41-yard punt, but Clemson's Hamilton provided some fireworks. He started to the right side of the field, cut back left, and then was off to the races thanks to some timely blocks. His 58-yard punt return put Clemson on the Volunteers' 17-yard line to begin the next drive.

The Tigers quickly responded to a Volunteer touchdown late in the first quarter. Chad Jasmin rushed for 46 yards on the drive, including a 15-yard touchdown run up the middle to put the Tigers ahead 17-7.

Clemson again responded with points on the ensuing possession. Jasmin ignited the drive with a 31-yard run up the middle. Whitehurst then found Hamilton for a 23-yard gain into the redzone. Faced with third-and-goal from the eight, the Tiger coaching staff reached into its bag of tricks.

Whitehurst took the shotgun snap and handed the ball to Kyle Browning between his legs. Whitehurst then carried out a fake option to the right, while Browning hesitated and then ran left for the touchdown. The play, known as "Panther," put the Tigers ahead 24-14 at halftime.

Clemson rushed for 153 yards, while Tennessee struggled to just 38. Jasmin, voted the game's most valuable offensive player, had 130 yards on the ground and a touchdown.

Recording sacks for Clemson were Charles Bennett, Touré Francis, Leroy Hill, John Leake, DeJuan Polk, and Miller. With two sacks, Hill was voted the defensive most valuable player.

on the drive, including a 15-yard touchdown run up the middle to put the Tigers ahead 17-7.

Clemson again responded with points on the ensuing possession. Jasmin ignited the drive with a 31-yard run up the Clemson won its 15th bowl game with a 19-10 victory over Colorado in the Champs Sports Bowl in Orlando, FL. It was only the second meeting between the two schools, with the first coming in the 1957 Orange Bowl, a 27-21 Buffalo win.

James Davis led the way for the Tigers, rushing for 150 yards on 28 carries to earn MVP honors. Charlie Whitehurst finished his career completing 21-29 passes for 205 yards, and also ran for a score.

Two runs by Davis gained 26 yards, and Whitehurst followed with a 20-yard strike to Curtis Baham. The drive stalled three plays later, and Jad Dean made a 26-yard field goal.

Hugh Charles picked up 13 yards and a first down at the Clemson 10, barely missing a score by stepping out of bounds. However, three more rushes by Charles resulted in a loss of eight yards, and Colorado settled for a Mason Crosby 36-yard field goal on the first play of the second quarter.

On Clemson's next possession, Whitehurst found Thomas Hunter for 10 yards on third down. After a penalty gave the Tigers another first down, Whitehurst completed a shovel pass to Davis for 22 yards down to the Colorado and his 18-yarder also gave the Tigers a 6-3 lead.

On the second play of the third quarter, Davis broke free for a 40-yard run. Whitehurst found Aaron Kelly for 11 yards three plays later, and then Whitehurst dove into the endzone for a five-yard touchdown run on a third-and-goal play. The touchdown drive covered 67 yards in eight plays.

Each team punted several more times before Colorado began a drive at its own 31 with just over nine minutes left in the game. Cox was replaced by Brian White. After a pass-interference penalty on the Tigers, White hit two consecutive passes for 45 yards down to the Clemson nine. Three plays later on third down, White found Quinn Sypniewski for a two-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 13-10.

Clemson's defense held Colorado to 124 total yards of offense and 17 yards rushing, the top defensive performance by any team in a bowl game during the 2005 season.

10. Two rushes by Davis and another completion to Hunter moved the ball to the two, and Clemson elected to take the lead with a field goal. Dean made his 24th field goal to set a school record for field goals in a season,

Andre' Woodson passed for 299 yards and three touchdowns to lead Kentucky to a 28-20 victory over Clemson in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl at LP Field in Nashville, TN on December 29.

Kentucky held a 7-6 lead late in the second quarter until it scored on a 70-yard pass after a fake punt in its own territory. Then Kentucky took a 28-6 lead in the fourth quarter and held on for the win in front of a partisan Wildcat crowd.

Will Proctor was 23-39 for 272 yards and three touchdowns. Aaron Kelly had a game-high six receptions for 66 yards and a touchdown, Chansi Stuckey caught five balls for 93 yards.

Kentucky took the opening drive 62 yards in 12 plays to take a 7-0 lead, as Micah Johnson scored on a one-yard plunge.

Tyler Grisham gave the ball back to the Tigers in Wildcat territory when he blocked a punt. Two plays after a 15-yard reverse by Jacoby Ford, Proctor found Durrell Barry open over the middle for a 32-yard touchdown reception, the first of Barry's career. Clemson missed the extra point, keeping Kentucky ahead 7-6.

As Clemson was in the process of holding Kentucky's offense under 10 yards for the sixth straight drive, the Wildcats gambled with a fake punt. Punter Tim Masthay completed a 10-yard pass on fourth-and-four from the Kentucky 20. On the next play, Woodson lofted a 70-yard touchdown pass to DeMoreo Ford.

Kentucky took a 21-6 lead on a 24-yard throw-back pass from Woodson to Dicky Lyons.

Early in the fourth quarter, Rafael Little returned a punt 46 yards to the Tiger 28. Four plays later, Woodson scrambled and found Jacob Tamme open for a 13-yard touchdown pass.

Clemson responded with a 78-yard drive to cut into the Wildcat lead. Pass plays of 19 yards to Grisham and 19 yards to Stuckey helped set up a first-and-goal. Facing fourth down from the 17, Grisham hauled in a touchdown pass from Proctor in the back of the endzone. The two-point try failed, leaving Kentucky up 28-12 with 7:25 remaining.

Clemson took over on downs with 3:17 left and drove 74 yards on eight plays. Stuckey's 28-yard catch moved the ball into Wildcat territory. Proctor then lofted a pass to Kelly, as he came down with the touchdown catch. Proctor connected with Michael Palmer on the two-point play, cutting Kentucky's lead to 28-20 with 44 seconds left.

Kodi Burns' seven-yard touchdown run in overtime gave #21 Auburn a 23-20 victory over #15 Clemson in the Chick-fil-A Bowl in the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, GA on December 31. It was Clemson's seventh appearance in the Chick-fil-A/Peach Bowl and its 30th bowl game overall.

C.J. Spiller led Clemson with 112 yards on eight carries and a touchdown. Spiller, who was named Offensive MVP of the Chick-fil-A-Bowl, also totaled a team-season-high 218 all-purpose yards.

On Auburn's first drive, Brandon Cox hit Rodgeriquis Smith for 28 yards to the Clemson 20. Two plays later, Brad Lester rushed for 13 yards to set up a first-and-goal at the eight. But Clemson's defense stiffened, forcing Wes Byrum's 36-yard field goal.

After a five-yard carry by Spiller, the sophomore carried again up the middle. This time, he bounced outside and sprinted 83 yards for a score to give Clemson a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter.

Auburn drove 78 yards in 10 plays on its third-quarter scoring drive. It was capped by Burns' 22-yard touchdown pass to Mario Fannin.

Cullen Harper's quarterback sneak on fourth down gave Clemson a first-and-goal. But Clemson had to settle for Mark capitalized on the game's only turnover when James Davis scored on a one-yard plunge on fourth-and-goal.

But Clemson's 17-10 lead was short-lived, as Auburn traversed 70 yards in 11 plays to tie the score. Cox's 18-yard pass to Robert Dunn on third-and-five moved the ball into Clemson territory. Four plays later, Burns rumbled 15 yards to the Clemson one. Ben Tate carried the ball into the endzone on the next play with 8:27 remaining in the game.

Clemson got the ball first in overtime. On third-and-two, Davis carried just far enough for a first down at the 15. But on third-and-three from the eight, Harper's pass fell incomplete. Buchholz then booted a 25-yard field goal.

Facing third-and-13, Cox connected with Smith for 12 yards. On fourth-and-one, Auburn elected to go for the first down and got it on Cox's quarterback sneak. Three plays later on third-and-three, Burns took the shotgun snap and scampered seven yards for the game-winning touchdown.

Buchholz's 22-yard field goal on the first snap of the fourth quarter to tie the score.

Four plays later, Crezdon Butler deflected Cox's pass and wound up with the interception at the Auburn 32. Clemson Nebraska overcame a 14-3 halftime deficit and scored 20 points in the third quarter to defeat Clemson 26-21 in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville (FL) Municipal Stadium on January 1.

Clemson built a 14-3 halftime lead thanks to a stalwart defense and 21-10 lead in the third quarter, but the Cornhuskers scored the game's final 16 points to earn the five-point victory.

Joe Ganz was named Nebraska's Gator Bowl MVP after going 19-36 for 236 yards and two scores. Quentin Castille had a game-high 125 rushing yards on 18 carries, but two of them went for 58 yards and 40 yards. In fact, of the Cornhuskers' 23 carries by running backs, 10 went for negative yardage.

C.J. Spiller had only 17 rushing yards, but he had a game-high 182 all-purpose yards thanks to 62 punt return yards and 97 kickoff return yards.

The Tigers finally dented the scoreboard in the second quarter when DeAndre McDaniel deflected Ganz's option pitch. He grabbed the ball off one bounce and raced 28 yards for a touchdown. It was the first of three turnovers forced by the Tigers, as all 21 of their points came off turnovers.

brask and caught a perfectly-thrown pass from Harper for a 41-yard score. But on Nebraska's next snap, Castille broke free for a 58-yard run. Ganz then hit Todd Peterson for a 19-yard touchdown pass.

After Blake Lawrence intercepted a batted ball at the Tiger 10, Clemson's defense stiffened and forced Alex Henery's 28-yard field goal. Disaster struck again on Clemson's next drive when Rickey Thenarse blocked Jimmy Maners' punt.

But Clemson's defense withstood and Henery booted a 28-yard, go-ahead field goal. The Cornhuskers later added another field goal.

Clemson's final drive was kept alive by a 16-yard pass from Harper to Ford on fourth-and-four and Kelly's 17-yard reception gave the Tigers first-and-goal at the 10. On third down, Harper's pass to Spiller in the endzone was nearly caught before Matt O'Hanlon broke up the pass. Harper's last-ditch effort on fourth down fell incomplete.

Da'Quan Bowers, Clemson's Gator Bowl MVP, had six tackles and a team-high three tackles for loss for the Tigers, who had 11 tackles for loss.

After a Crezdon Butler interception late in the second quarter, Cullen Harper hit Aaron Kelly for a 25-yard touchdown pass to up Clemson's lead to 14-3.

In the third quarter, Jacoby Ford outran Ne-

C.J. Spiller totaled 172 all-purpose yards and a rushing score in his final collegiate game to lead Clemson to a 21-13 win over Kentucky in the Music City Bowl at LP Field in Nashville, TN on December 27. It was the Tigers' first bowl win since 2005, ending a three-game bowl losing streak, and their 16th bowl victory.

Spiller earned game MVP honors, as he had 67 rushing yards, three catches for 58 yards, and 47 kickoff-return yards. His touchdown was the 51st of his career to set a Tiger record.

The Tiger offense was productive despite totaling just 47 offensive plays. Clemson set bowl records for yards per play (6.8) and yards per carry (5.5) in its 321-yard performance.

The Wildcats drove 61 yards on their opening possession, capped by Morgan Newton's 17-yard touchdown pass to Chris Matthews. The Tigers answered late in the first quarter with Kyle Parker's 32-yard touchdown pass to Jacoby Ford over the middle.

Jamie Harper, who had 79 yards on eight carries, gave Clemson the lead in the second quarter on his one-yard plunge.

yards on its last drive, but Ricky Sapp tackled Newton just short of the first-down marker on fourth down at the Tiger 25. Clemson drained the final 5:27 off the clock thanks to 53 combined rushing yards by Spiller and Harper.

In the fourth quarter, Kavell Conner stripped Gene McCaskill and Jarvis Jenkins recovered at the Wildcat 19. Three plays later, Spiller scored on an eight-yard touchdown run.

THE BROOKING NAGURSKI

Charlotte Town Club

Da'Quan BOWERS

- Winner of the Hendricks Award and Nagurski Award
- National Defensive Player-of-the-Year by Scout.com
- Finalist for the Bednarik Award and Lombardi Award
- First-Team All-American by AFCA, CBSSports.com, Football Writers Association, Rivals.com, Scout.com, and Walter Camp Football Foundation
- ACC Defensive Player-of-the-Year and First-Team All-ACC selection
- Leads the nation in sacks (15.5). No other player has more than 13 sacks
- Has more sacks than 18 FBS teams
- Second in the nation in tackles for loss (25)
- His 15.5 sacks are second-most in a season in Tiger history, trailing only linebacker Keith Adams, who had 16 sacks in 1999. Bowers broke the school record for sacks by a defensive lineman in a season. The late Gaines Adams previously held the record in his ACC Defensive Player-of-the-Year season (2006)
- Had a school-record nine straight games with being involved in a sack. He also has been involved in a sack in 10 of 11 games against FBS opponents in 2010
- Had nine tackles and four tackles for loss at #15 Auburn
- Clemson is 12th in the nation in tackles for loss per game and tied for ninth in the nation in scoring defense thanks in large part to Bowers
